FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
YEAR B | FEBRUARY 4, 2024

THE DEACON'S SPEAKIN'

Dear sisters and brothers,

The prophet Job speaks with brutal, yet refreshing, honesty in today's first reading. Job struggles to find purpose in the drudgery of everyday life. The reading draws our attention to the problem of human suffering. Marks' gospel portrays Jesus in the role of healer of misery and pain. Do Job's laments sound familiar? Surely all of us have reasons to lament in our lives when we face hardship. No human being is exempt from experiencing the spectrum of emotions, including anger, frustration, boredom, and other difficult emotions.

Job demonstrates the value of bringing these emotions to prayer. God can handle cries of suffering – in fact, Scripture is filled with such prayers. Jesus responds to prayers of lamentation, although not always in the ways we hope. Today's gospel can be difficult to digest for people who prayed for healing, for themselves or for a loved one and did not experience a cure like Simon's mother-in-law. Why did I or my loved one have to suffer? Why didn't Jesus answer our prayers for a complete cure? These are the sorts of difficult, honest questions Jesus wants us to bring him. God's ways are deeply mysterious. Jesus is not Santa or a fairy godmother. He doesn't make all our wishes come true exactly as we imagine. Rather, Jesus remains close to us in our times of need. He listens to the longing of our hearts and promises healing will come in time.

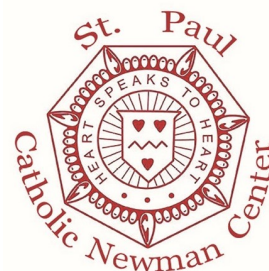

A challenge laid down by the Book of Job, perhaps, is to drop our old conceptions of suffering as always and everywhere being a punishment. We should concentrate instead on encountering God in the suffering by responding to it as a just person would – with mercy and compassion when we see the suffering of others. One who is suffering needs comfort, not a philosophical discussion on the justice of God. When we experience it ourselves, we should respond with trust, praise, and humility, as difficult and challenging as that may be.

Peace and Love,

Deacon John

LENTEN DISCERNMENT GROUP

During Lent, we will make a Spiritual Pilgrimage using the book: "33 Days to Eucharistic Glory." In his book, the author, Matthew Kelly says: "In a world where so many people feel unseen, unheard, unworthy, Jesus generously proclaims: I see you. I hear you. I know you. You are worthy. I am with you. I care. I am yours. You are mine. During Lent, go to him, seek out time in his presence, and allow his presence to transform you." Linda Smith and Jean Nicholson will facilitate the group, which meets Thursday, Feb. 15 through Thursday, March 21, 9am – 10am. We will meet in the Community Room. If you are interested, please sign up at the reception desk.
