SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B | FEBRUARY 11, 2024

Midway on our life's journey, I found myself in a dark woods, the right road lost.

So begins one of the most famous passages in literature; and surely begins the bane of many high school students who have to muscle through the various translations of Dante's famous Inferno. Focusing on the term "midway," literary scholars emphasize both Dante's age and the point at which he finds his life balanced between a past of experience and a future of discernment and decisions. As the Cantos of the Inferno unfold, Dante is presented with the various pictures of sin's consequences, some rather graphic, and all quite memorable.

Although not as dramatic as what Dante sees on this symbolic journey, the upcoming rituals of Ash Wednesday present us with an equally potent and visual means to reflect on our actions, to understand the character of our wrongdoing, and to renew our promises to be faithful representatives of God's Reign. On Wednesday you may come for one of our formal liturgies: Mass at 8am and 6pm, or a Liturgy of the Word at 12pm. At each of these services you will have an opportunity to receive ashes on your forehead as signs of penance, a practice stretching back to the Jewish roots of Christian prayer, and a common symbol of sacred meaning in many cultures around the world. But if you aren't able to stay for a Mass or maybe only have a few minutes to spare, you may also come in and receive ashes from one of our team of lay ministers who will meet you, take you into a quiet space inside, and allow for a few moments of peace and reflection. This ritual is open to everyone; this means that you have the chance to invite your loved ones to Church, even if they're not Catholic! Our traditions are a beautiful means to help others experience God's grace. Who knows? Maybe we'll meet a future parishioner, godparent, sponsor, RCIA catechumen, or friend!

I am proud of our team of lay ministers who allow this to happen within the walls of our church. Apart from them, we have a team of students who will be doing the same for all four major college campuses in our area: Fresno State, Fresno City College, Fresno Pacific University, and Clovis Community College. In addition to being a day of solemn prayer and reflection, Ash Wednesday is also paradoxically a day of joyous outreach for the Newman Center. Thus at the beginning of Lent we get a taste of what Dante witnesses at the end of his dramatic journey: a vision of the celestial banquet in which all things are made new, and the stain of sin wiped away.

-Karl Gurney

Director of Liturgy

LENTEN DISCERNMENT GROUP

During Lent, we will make a Spiritual Pilgrimage using the book: "33 Days to Eucharistic Glory." In his book, the author, Matthew Kelly says: "In a world where so many people feel unseen, unheard, unworthy, Jesus generously proclaims: I see you. I hear you. I know you. You are worthy. I am with you. I care. I am yours. You are mine. During Lent, go to him, seek out time in his presence, and allow his presence to transform you." Linda Smith and Jean Nicholson will facilitate the group, which meets Thursday, Feb. 15 through Thursday, March 21, 9am – 10am. We will meet in the Community Room. If you are interested, please sign up at the reception desk.

Caring for the Whole Person Initiative (CWPI)

The Caring for the Whole Person Initiative (CWPI) is launching at Newman Center. The vision created and endorsed by the California bishops is to provide resources and knowledge at the parish level to ensure that our persons and communities know that they are loved, wanted, and worthy, and will be supported in health and serious illness through to the end of life.

CWPI PRESENTATIONS

Tuesday, Feb 20 at 6:15PM CNH 102

A small team has formed and will be working to integrate this initiative into our family ministry programs. They offer classes open to everyone.

On Tuesday, February 20, they will highlight Advance Care Planning topics. Specifically, they will address the Advance Care Directive: a written statement of a person's wishes regarding medical treatment, often including a living will, made to ensure those wishes are carried out should the person be unable to communicate them to a doctor.

Presentations will be 30-40 minutes and allow time for questions.

Come join us to learn about how to plan for What to do when serious illness strikes and how to have conversations with loved ones!

Please take home a Catholic Relief Services (CRS) Rice Bowl to use during Lent. CRS Rice Bowl shares stories of hope from CRS' work around the world. These stories are examples of how your Lenten alms are helping communities find solutions to problems like hunger and climate change.
