THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT
YEAR B | MARCH 3, 2024

THE DEACON'S SPEAKIN'

Dear sisters and brothers,

I think students would tell you that the hardest thing about taking exams is often not the exams themselves, but waiting for grades. What is most difficult about going to a hospital for tests is often not so much taking the tests, but waiting for the results. "It's worse not knowing what's wrong. If I knew, I could face it; not knowing is driving me up the wall!" We can understand that. Most of us are uncomfortable with uncertainty; we like things black and white. If there's a problem, we like to clear it up as soon as possible. We don't like living with ambiguity.

In Paul's letter to the Corinthians, we can identify with those who were demanding "signs" – more proofs about the claims of Jesus. We can sympathize with those who wanted the assurance of worldly wisdom: "Show me." Jesus faces the same issue in today's Gospel passage. People are demanding a clear "sign" from Jesus, evidence to convince them of his authority. We can relate to that. There's enough confusion in life. It's frustrating when our children don't give us straight answers, and nerve-racking when a spouse is in a bad mood and we ask, "What's wrong?", only to be told, "Nothing!"

Life itself is full of confusion, contradictions, and ambiguity. Life comes with no guarantees. But do we ever consider that it's supposed to be that way, that ambiguity is part of God's design for creation? Ambiguity exists for a purpose; it's what keeps life "alive." God knows our hearts, what tickles our imaginations, stimulates our minds, and motivates us. Demanding "proof" is a formula for boredom. Taking the journey of life without clear "signs" is what makes life challenging, creative, inventive, and exciting.

Case in point – why do we have to know the gender identity of a baby before it's born? Such a glorious gift should be a surprise! Nothing is more deadening for the human spirit than the predictable. We take a big step when we embrace ambiguity. We avoid major frustration when we accept life for the way it is: uncertain. Life is a hundred times more enriched when we can accept mystery, find spontaneity pleasurable, and give up our demands for "proof."

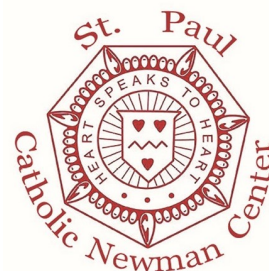

Trust in God and God's designs is all we need to maintain our peace of mind in the midst of life's endless turmoil and confusion. God knows what God is about, regardless of our level of understanding. He knows what we're about too. Everything in creation has its purpose, including confusion and endless possibilities for doubt.

Peace and love,

Deacon John

Special Synod Listening Session

Monday, March 11, from 9:00-10:30 AM or 6:00-7:30 PM

In preparation for the Second Assembly of the Synod on Synodality happening in October we are asked to reflect on three questions:

1. Where have I experienced or witnessed encouragement and/ or challenges in our shared mission as Church?
2. Where have I witnessed Church structure (parish, diocesan, universal) fostering or hindering our shared mission?
3. What is needed to help all the baptized respond to our shared mission to proclaim the Gospel and live as a community of love and mercy in Christ?

The responses will be collected and shared with the Synod participants before the Assembly at the Vatican. Parishioners and others from the Fresno area interested in contributing to the next phase of the Synod Process will meet in Cardinal Newman Hall on Monday, March 11, from 9:00-10:30 AM or 6:00-7:30 PM and prayerfully reflect in tables together around these three questions.

If you are interested in attending, please contact Jim Grant (jimgrantbc@gmail.com).

COMMUNAL ANOINTING OF THE SICK

We will celebrate a communal Anointing of the Sick AFTER all the Masses on Laetare Saturday and Sunday: March 9-10 . Laetare means: "Rejoice!" and expresses hope and joy in the midst of our Lenten fasts, almsgiving and prayers. On Laetare Sunday our priests and deacons wear rose-colored vestments, This change in color indicates a glimpse of the joy that awaits us at Easter, just before we enter into the somber days of Passiontide. Receiving the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick (which is NOT Last Rites) is a wonderful way to strengthen our bodies, hearts and souls as we continue our Lenten journey into Holy Week!

Knights of Columbus Burrito Breakfast
Breaking the Chains

Thank you Parish for supporting the Knights of Columbus Council 9445 and Breaking the Chains. Our next breakfast is on March 17, for Garden of Innocence. Future Burrito Breakfast Dates are on our bulletin Board.

“Heart Speaks To Heart” Stewardship 2024

Thank you so much for your participation!

We ended with:

- 27% response rate from our registered parishioners
- Over $63,000 in new/increased annual commitments
- Over $80,000 pledged/received for Roof/ADA gifts!
- 48 New Families committing to our parish offertory

Roof Repairs started this week.

We still need pledges or gifts of $310,000 to support our Roof Repair and ADA Upgrades. Pray about what you might be able to give to help us get these essential maintenance projects completed!

Retrouvaille

Thinking about separation or divorce? Is your marriage or that of a relative or friend heading for divorce? Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi with a long i) is designed to help troubled marriages regain their health. It helps spouses uncover or re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that originally brought them together.

The program is highly successful in saving hurting marriages, even bringing reconciliation to couples who have already separated or divorced. The next English weekend in Fresno will be held March 8-10, 2024. For confidential information or to register, please call us at (559) 862-6765.

NEW ART FOR THE CHAPEL?

This Sunday after Mass, our parishioner and professional artist, Chris Lessley, will host an Open House to discuss a proposed Art Project for our Chapel.

The proposed project would have paintings of Holy People on the back wall, reflecting the same style as our beautiful stained glass in front.

We ask you to please stop by and look at Chris's demo exhibits and spend some time talking to him about his ideas and your ideas!

PARISHIONERS will have the opportunity to talk directly with Chris and to VOTE on whether you support the project or not.

This is a proposed project, and Chris is working to get grant funding to do the project, to train young artists and to involve parishioners in what the project to reflect our chapel's current beauty, our parish mission, and our diversity of parishioners.

Please plan to join us after Masses! If you would like to talk to Chris at a different time, please contact the office.

FILIPINO MASS: MAR 10, 2024 AT 2PM

We welcome all Filipinos to join our Filipino Mass at St. Paul Catholic Newman Center. Mark your calendars for every 2nd Sunday of the month at 2 PM for the Eucharistic Celebration. Come and please join us in our Filipino Mass!

FLOCKNOTE ROLL-OUT

We are almost complete with the FlockNote testing. Please watch for an update next week for your turn to join FlockNote and check/update your Parish Registration information, or to register if you are not already registered.

We are very excited about this new tool, that will have financial-system level security, great communication capability, and many tools for parishioners to stay in touch, check their contributions, and even make contributions.

Campesino Program: Rosaries for Outreach

The California State Council of the Knights of Columbus recently established a Campesino (farmworker) Program to support and assist those whose hard work brings food to our tables. Through the generosity of KofC councils around the State, and our local KofC Chapter and Councils, the Knights have coordinated with Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Fresno (CCDF) and funded a food distribution for campesino families. Over 5,000 permanent and seasonal farmworker jobs with the Prima Wawona Company will soon be eliminated by that company's recent closure.

The Knights, with CCDF logistical support, will be distributing 300 food boxes in Cutler during April. To show our support, and prayerful thanks and encouragement, we would like to include a Rosary in each food box. If you have a Rosary at home that you can spare, please enclose it in an envelope or small container and bring it to the Newman Center, noting "Campesino Program" on the envelope. Thank you for your help and support for our local Campesino families.
