FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY
YEAR A | APRIL 30, 2023

VOCATION: GRACE AND MISSION

An excerpts from the message of his Holiness Pope Francis for the 2023 World Day of Prayer for Vocations.

Our shared mission as Christians is to bear joyful witness wherever we find ourselves, through our actions and words, to the experience of being with Jesus and members of his community, which is the Church. That mission finds expression in works of material and spiritual mercy, in a welcoming and gentle way of life that reflects closeness, compassion and tenderness, in contrast to the culture of waste and indifference. By being a neighbor, like the Good Samaritan (cf. Lk 10:25-37), we come to understand the heart of our Christian vocation: to imitate Jesus Christ, who came to serve, not to be served (cf. Mk 10:45).

This missionary activity does not arise simply from our own abilities, plans and projects, nor from our sheer willpower or our efforts to practice the virtues; it is the result of a profound experience in the company of Jesus. Only then can we testify to a Person, a Life, and thus become "apostles". Only then can we regard ourselves as "sealed, even branded, by this mission of bringing light, blessing, enlivening, raising, healing and freeing" (Evangelii Gaudium, 273).

The evangelist Mark relates the moment when Jesus called to himself twelve disciples, each by name. ... The Lord thus laid the foundations of his new community. The Twelve were people from different social classes and trades; none of them was a person of influence.

Within the Church, all of us are servants, in accordance with the variety of our vocations, charisms and ministries. Our common vocation to give ourselves in love develops and finds concrete expression in the life of lay men and women...; in the testimony of consecrated women and men...; in ordained ministers – deacons, priests and bishops... Only in relation with all the others, does any particular vocation in the Church fully disclose its true nature and richness. Viewed in this light, the Church is a vocational "symphony", with every vocation united yet distinct, in harmony and joined together in "going forth" to radiate throughout the world the new life of the kingdom of God.

Grace and mission: a gift and a task: Vocation is a gift and a task, a source of new life and true joy. May prayer and activity strengthen awareness of vocations within our families; parish; ecclesial associations and movements; and communities of consecrated life. The Spirit of the risen Lord dispels our apathy and grants us the gifts of sympathy and empathy. [Enabling] us to live each day born anew as children of the God who is love (cf. 1 Jn 4:16) and in turn to offer that love to others. To bring life everywhere, especially in places of exclusion and exploitation, poverty and death, in order to enlarge the spaces of love, so that God may reign ever more fully in this world.

May the Virgin Mary watch over you and protect you. With my blessing.

FRANCIS

"...the Church is a vocational harmony and joined together throughout the world the new life of the kingdom of God."

World Day of Prayer for Vocations is observed on Sunday, April 30, 2023 also known as "Good Shepherd Sunday." The purpose of this day is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). Please pray that the Lord's call be heard with a joyful response.

WORDS FROM POPE FRANCIS ON WORLD YOUTH DAY

An excerpt from the message of his Holiness Pope Francis for the 2023 World Day of Prayer for Vocations.

The Gospel icon of this experience is that of the two disciples journeying to Emmaus. After their encounter with the risen Jesus, they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the Scriptures to us?" (Lk 24:32). In those disciples, we can see what it means to have "hearts on fire, feet on the move". This is also my fervent hope for the coming World Youth Day in Lisbon, to which I joyfully look forward, with its motto: "Mary arose and went with haste" (Lk 1:39). May every man and woman feel called to arise and go in haste, with hearts on fire.

“THY WILL BE DONE,”

Catholic Charities May Appeal 2023

For 55 years, Catholic Charities has been supporting the community with basic and crucial needs, providing a beacon of hope to our neighbors who are struggling to make ends meet and those who are facing immense challenges in their lives.

The Annual May Appeal Second Collection for Catholic Charities will take place the weekend of May 20 and 21. This year's theme, “Thy Will Be Done,” is more than a phrase from the Lord's Prayer. It's a response to God and an expression of desire to align ourselves with His will and to share our gifts with others.

This annual effort brings together our Catholic brothers and sisters in Christ to share in God's many blessings. It provides an important opportunity for our Church to bring hope and healing to the lives of so many.

Your support helps fund 16 programs and services across three Catholic Charities brick-and-mortar sites and within 36 rural communities within our Diocese. More than 275,000 men, women, and children received help from Catholic Charities in 2022. This included food pantry services, homelessness prevention in the form of emergency rental and mortgage payments, disaster response, preparedness and recovery services, immigration legal services, resettlement support for asylees and immigrants, increased healthcare access, and youth and family supportive services.

Every dollar donated during this second collection makes a difference. Thank you for your anticipated support of families in the greatest of need.

For more information or to learn more about how you can help, please contact Ashlee Wolf at (559) 237-0851 or email awolf@ccdof.org.

May the prayer that Saint Paul VI composed for the first World Day of Vocations, 11 April 1964, accompany us on our journey.

PRAYER FOR THE World Day of Vocations

“O Jesus, divine Shepherd of souls, you called the apostles and made them fishers of men.

Continue to draw to yourself ardent and generous souls from among the young, in order to make them your followers and your ministers. Give them a share in your thirst for the redemption of all... Open before them the horizons of the entire world... By responding to your call, may they prolong your mission here on earth, build up your Mystical Body which is the Church, and be ‘the salt of the earth’ and ‘the light of the world’ (Mt 5:13)”.
