SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER
SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY YEAR B | APRIL 7, 2024

Excerpts From Fr Robert's Holy Thursday Homily:

Many years ago, walking through the streets of my hometown, I passed by a block of apartments, on which many inscriptions, vulgar slogans, graffiti were visible, but my attention was particularly drawn to one sentence written in red spray, which I still remember and recall with a smile: "Love everyone, do not spare anyone." And paradoxically, I think about it today, because it is Holy Thursday, and for me that is the event in which God communicates so much with us in the language of love. The Liturgy of the Word shows us a God who is near and who comes to serve....

And we know very well, today we live in a world where everything almost screams. If something is not loud and noisy, it rarely has a chance to reach a person. And God is quiet, humble, gentle, pure and beautiful. This is exactly why God comes to us in the Eucharist and offers Himself to us. The Eucharist is an offering. We have nothing more precious in the Church. Sometimes we may think that we would like something more, that God would work harder, that He would show Himself to us more, but in fact it is in the Eucharist that He is most present among us. God comes to us in great simplicity.

The foot-washing ritual that (takes) place is not some kind of theater, but a rite that shows us who Jesus really is in our lives and what he invites us to do. This very significant moment during today's Liturgy is an invitation for us to really start serving one another. The rite of washing feet is concrete, love is concrete and Christianity just invites us to be concrete.

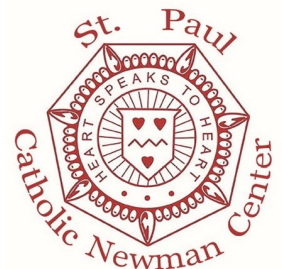

You can talk to someone for hours about love and you can bring them to the Church and show them a community where people really love each other, where they support each other, where they forgive each other. This community between Jesus and the apostles is a community that we are constantly supposed to grow into.

Service, which is a beautiful kind of love, is the driving force of the Church. Instead of thinking so much about what else we can do in the Church to get new people, we should just start loving and serving.

Fr. Robert Pyrka, C.M.F.

Newman's Still Bloomin' at Sixty

On Mothers' Day, May 10, 1964, the first Mass was celebrated in our new chapel! In just five weeks, we at St. Paul Catholic Newman Center, will be celebrating our 60th anniversary.

To observe this occasion, we will be holding a Gala in Cardinal Newman Hall on the evening of Friday, May 10th. Further information and tickets for the Gala will be available next weekend. In addition, we will be celebrating our anniversary and history at all Masses that same weekend. A reception will be held in the courtyard following each of the morning Masses on Sunday, May 12th.

We are a 60-year-old experiment in ministry to college students, faculty, staff and their families that became a test of how the Second Vatican Council's updating of the Roman Catholic Church would "play" in the Diocese of Fresno. Through our shared Faith and communal determination, we've built a unique, worshipful, involved parish that has touched tens of thousands of people.

Our true beginning actually dates back to 1931 with the formation of the Fresno State Newman Club when the college campus was where Fresno City College is now located. The Shrine of St. Therese, a short walk from campus, hosted Newman Club students for worship, study and socializing. When Fresno State began outgrowing its campus, a decision was made to move it to the then sparsely populated area at Cedar and Shaw. For several years, students attended classes on both campuses, shuttling back and forth. By 1958, enough classrooms were built allowing for the completion of the "Big Move."

That same year, our Diocese finalized formulation of a plan to build a spiritual home near the new campus to serve the large number of college-aged Catholics enrolled at Fresno State as well as for faculty, staff and their families. Ground was broken for the building of our Chapel in September, 1962. We continue to serve not only the students at Fresno State, but at all of the college campuses within our community.

And yes! Newman's Still Bloomin' at Sixty! Join us in celebrating our past as we look forward to the continuation of our ministry and service to all in the future.

Father David Norris' Jubilee

Our former Campus Minister and Sacramental Priest, Father David Norris, will be celebrating his Golden Jubilee of priestly ordination on Saturday, April 20, 2024 at the 5:00pm Mass at St. Paul Catholic Newman Center. In lieu of gifts, please make a donation to the Sergio P. Negro Memorial Scholarship Fund here at the Newman Center. In the Mass of Thanksgiving that Saturday, Father will remember in grateful prayer all the members of this parish community who were blessings of his priestly ministry during his two assignments here as Campus Minister (1989-1995) and as Sacramental Priest (2008-2018). If you cannot attend that day, please make the donation to the Scholarship Fund and keep Father Dave in your prayers.

MINISTRY FAIR APRIL 27-28

"Calling all Newman ministry leaders"

We will host a Ministry Fair April 27th-28th after all Masses. Please email Kendra DeLuca-Leiker, our Volunteer Coordinator at volunteercoordinator@csufnewman.com by Monday, April 15th if you would like to have a table for your ministry.
