Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time YEAR B | JUNE 9, 2024

Welcome to Ordinary Time!

Reading this greeting, what pops into your mind?

The Liturgical Church year is made up of Seasons: Advent, Christmas, Ordinary (Time after Epiphany) Lent, Easter, and Ordinary Time (Time after Pentecost). Each season has a special color, a tone, and a teaching agenda. Since most of the year, 33 or 34 weeks of the 52 weeks, of the Church year is called Ordinary Time it must be pretty important. It is a time of “greening” which means growth and it spans all four seasons. We live in a time that is “extraordinary” and most of it is not so good. I am sure you each can make your list and wonder if we'll make it through wars, migration, hunger, untruths, hate, corruption, climate change and the list goes on and on. How do we Catholics at St. Paul Newman Center navigate and change Ordinary time into an extraordinary experience of God's love and mercy to begin to change our surroundings and the world at large. May I offer some suggestions:

1. Focus on Jesus' life. For thirty years he took from his ordinary life the way to build a message to save humankind. We can focus on the weekly Sunday Gospel, trying to make it real in your life and the lives of those around you. Week by week we can experience how Jesus handled his world and begin to shape our lives like his.
2. Learn about the lives of the saints. They lived in the world and found a way to serve God and their neighbors. They were ordinary people just like us. Try to pray more by carving out a time each day to connect with God and acknowledge the work of the Spirit. Most of all, lift our world to the heart of Jesus for healing. Be firm in the belief that God is alive in our world and if you fail to see it try to become it where you are.
3. Own and confess when you fall short, failure is always forgiven. Make time then to go to confession in the formal way at Church through the Sacrament of Reconciliation a few times during Ordinary Time. Try to put your time in the service of others at least once a month, 33 acts of kindness during Ordinary Time can change your world.

All of this will take courage and we can do it together. I found these Six Types of Courage to share with you.

- Physical Courage: To keep going with resiliency, balance and awareness.
- Social Courage: To be yourself unapologetically.
- Moral Courage: Doing the right thing even when it's uncomfortable or unpopular.
- Emotional Courage: Feeling all your emotions (positive and negative) without guilt or attachment.
- Intellectual Courage: To learn, unlearn and relearn with an open and flexible mind.
- Spiritual Courage: Living with purpose and meaning through a heart centered approach towards all life and oneself.

Happy Ordinary Time! May it truly be a time of “Greening.”

Check out the Podcast EKG (Edgar, Kathleen and God) on Newman Website to listen to a conversation about the topic.

Dear Newman Center Family,

It is with a mixture of gratitude and sadness that we say goodbye to a place that has been our spiritual home for the past three years. Our experience at the Newman Center has been truly transformative. We chose this parish for its warm, vibrant community, which has embraced us like family. Every step through those doors felt like coming home to a family gathering—one around the most important table.

Participating in ministries like the Friday Night Community Meals and Hike with Mary has deepened our connection with both the community and our faith. Leading these hikes allowed us to strengthen our brothers' and sisters' prayer lives and deepened our own devotion to the Blessed Mary.

This year, we had the honor of co-leading the parish during The Eucharistic Revival. This responsibility not only allowed us to guide our parish in a faith revival but also profoundly impacted our own spiritual journey.

Being a part of the Music team has been a source of immense joy for me, Jessica. Working alongside such dedicated musical ministers, using our gifts together has been an extraordinary blessing.

Our time at the Newman Center has helped us grow in our marriage as a young couple, reinforcing the importance of faith and community in our life together. We are deeply grateful for the opportunity to be a part of this parish, where relationships are not only celebrated but nurtured. All of our interactions with you reflect the beauty of faith, community, and growth within the Catholic Church.

As we move on to the next chapter of our lives, we carry with us the wisdom, friendships, and spiritual growth we have gained here. Thank you for being a part of our journey. We will always cherish our time at the Newman Center.

-Jessica and Ryan Borunda
