MEMI SISTERS

To us, they are known as the MEMI Sisters (Misioneras Eucaristicas de Maria Inmaculada or Eucharistic Missionaries of Mary Immaculate). To farmworkers (campesinos), they are angels on Earth.

Some years back, Bishop Steinbock brought them here from Colima, Mexico, to catechize farmworkers and their families. Last year, over 120 children received their First Communion and over 80 were confirmed – all because of their commitment to bring the faith to communities usually not known to us. But they do more than that. In servicing the areas of Easton, Caruthers, Raisin City, and the Arboledas, Burrell and Maddox farmworker camps, the MEMI Sisters are often the first ones farmworkers turn to in times of need (when a family member passes away, when someone needs to be taken to the hospital, when someone is about to lose their home because they cannot pay the rent—the list is endless).

Even in the best of times, we know the work of farmworkers is difficult. Yet, it is their hands that plant, nourish and gather the food that is on our tables.

Many of the farmworkers have been out of work for months. Others are afraid to go to work, for fear of deportation. Many of the services they counted on have been shut down or greatly reduced. Now, it is up to us to come to their aid.

Newman Center's Community Engagement and Action Committee, CEAC, is continuing our "Be the Light" project. This time, we would like to bless the MEMI Sisters in their critical work of supporting our neighbors in need who work the farmlands surrounding us. We are asking for donations of pinto beans (8 to 10 lb. bag), white rice (10 lb.), Canola oil (32 to 48 oz.), Maseca [corn flour] (16 to 22 lb.), adult-size work socks and baby diapers. If you are unable to purchase any of these items, gift cards of $25 would be greatly appreciated from these stores: Walmart, FoodMaxx or Costco (and we would go make the purchases for you). COLLECTION WILL BE FROM AUGUST 29 TO SEPTEMBER 26.

Thank you for joining us in helping the MEMI Sisters continue to be of service to the farmworkers. And in so doing, may we remember "...as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me."

FILIPINO MASS THANK YOU

We would like to say thank you to the Santo Nino group for sponsoring the Filipino Mass on Aug 10, 2025.

Also for those who donated food and flowers, the choir and the volunteers.

Salamat po sa inyang lahat. See you next month.
