TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR A | OCTOBER 8, 2023

Campus ministry strives to accomplish three goals: create community, accompaniment, and educate. Newman Center has done these three things throughout its existence, the Newman Center has faithfully upheld these values, extending its reach not only to students and the academic community but also to anyone who chooses to be part of our Newman family.

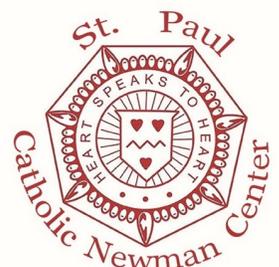

Throughout my time at the Newman Center these three values have naturally intertwined in our interactions with young people. Saint John Henry Newman envisioned the academic tutor not merely as someone addressing academic needs but as a holistic guide, serving the entirety of a person - the whole person. This Christlike approach to serving individuals is profoundly personal and intimate, demanding authenticity, honesty, and vulnerability from each of us. It is in these authentic relationships that we can genuinely accompany one another throughout our lives.

On the feast day of Saint John Henry Newman, let us center our prayers on his legacy. May Newman's teachings inspire us to prioritize building genuine communities, accompanying one another, and learning side by side. Together, let us strive to create a space where Christ's love flourishes among us.

Edgar Guzmán

This week: Family Feud! This coming week we will be hosting our own version of the game during our high school youth religious education program on Tuesday from 6-7:00pm in the Student Lounge.

In October, the youth will be focused on "Jesus and the Church." We want to invite you to participate by completing a short survey! If you are at Mass this weekend, you will find cards available that include six questions for you to answer and place in the Newman Center Family Feud basket in the breezeway. The answers will be used to help us put together our own version of Family Feud and will allow you to be a part of our Claretian Youth activity. For everyone else, visit <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/JTDHYSM> or scan the QR Code below!

Our young adult interest list to go to Congress is still growing! If making a pilgrimage with other Catholics throughout our country and grow closer to the Eucharist interests you, we want to be in touch! In addition to a renewal of your spirit, some featured speakers are Fr. Mike Schmitz, Bishop Robert Barron, and more in person. If you are an adult 40+ or have a family interested in going, there is room for you, too! Please email eucharistic.revival@csufnewman.com for more information.
