THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
YEAR C | NOVEMBER 6, 2022

Dear Friends and Parishioners,

We hope you are all enjoying the cool weather these days! As we enter the month of Thanksgiving, we also celebrate Restorative Justice in November. Restorative Justice is a different approach in seeking responsibility and accountability for the harm done where the focus is all about restoring the brokenness amongst all parties involved - the offender, the victim, and the community. Knowingly or not, we are all affected directly or indirectly by everyone and everything happening in our community. Restorative Justice serves both the offenders and the victims. Unfortunately, the available support for the victims' are limited, if there is any. The pain and suffering of the victims are both deep and long-lasting. The need for emotional and spiritual support for the victims are huge!! It is comforting for them to feel that they are not alone as they go through the journey of healing from the horrible experiences of homicide, domestic violence, sexual assault, early childhood abuse, intimate partner violence, or any type of crime where their sense of dignity, safety, and hope was aggressively taken away from them. We, the Crime Survivors Ministry, are committed to serving this need and we would like to invite each one of you to please come join us in this service.

In 2012, John Christopher Godburn was called by the Holy Spirit to start a new ministry. His "YES" to this calling had led to the beginning of the Crime Survivors Ministry. The Lord works in mysterious ways and unfortunately, the opportunity came after his passing. In 2019, I attended a three-day training offered by Debbie McDermott, Associate Director Restorative Justice at California Catholic Conference. With the blessing of Jim Grant, who at that time was the Restorative Justice Director of the diocese, I started the Crime Survivors Ministry to honor the legacy of my late husband John. In February 2021, Bishop Brennan gave his blessing for me to continue with the ministry after Jim Grant had retired.

*Together, let us all be united with our brothers and sisters
who are hurting
from the violence happening in our society today.*

To help the victims in their healing journey, we offer them a safe space to freely process their thoughts and feelings, such as healing retreats, healing circles, companionship, prayer service at the crime site, and other trauma-informed care. The ministry envisions that we all become instruments of peace, light, and hope. We aspire to bring awareness of the innate relatedness amongst us and be bound by the love and mercy of God. Together, let us all be united with our brothers and sisters who are hurting from the violence happening in our society today. May your heart be open to the silent whispers of the Holy Spirit as you give your 'yes' to His calling to serve this population with great love.

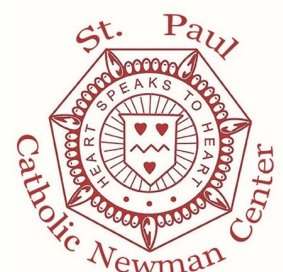

Please feel free to contact me or Jim Grant if you have any questions. Thank you.
Blessings to all,

Cielito 'Maciel' Godburn

From FR. BYRON MACIAS, CMF

"Yes, the dead will be raised" says Jesus today to the Sadducees, who did not believe in the resurrection (Luke 20:27-38). What an amazing gift we have given: the beautiful gift of our life does not end with death but it actually becomes a witness of the fulfillment of the promises of Christ.

"Yes, the dead will be raised"

This is another affirmation that we are not just thrown into existence by a coincidence; all God wants from us is to remember that there is purpose, meaning and hope in our living. After all, as Pope Benedict XVI says: "we are not accidents of nature."

Let's think of the resurrection not as a reward for our faith only, but as the reminder that behind this life of ours, there is a God who loves it, respects it and blesses it!

You and I will die one day, but one day you and I will be raised. That is Jesus' promise!

HIKE WITH MARY

Thank you so much to all the good people who joined us for our Hike with Mary on Saturday morning. Save the date: the next one will be on Saturday, December 3, 2022. See you then!

DAY OFF

I have been meaning to share with you that Friday is my day off. That's why when Fr. Paul was here, you would see him celebrating the Friday morning Mass. Now that he is away, we will be having prayer devotions on most Fridays except the First Friday of the month. I will celebrate Mass and Exposition on the First Friday (moving my day off to the Monday before First Friday on that week only). Thanks for your understanding and support. I feel excited that we can actually explore other prayer forms within the great spirituality treasure of our Catholic Deposit of Faith: Lectio Divina; Rosary; Liturgy of the Hours; Examen of Consciousness; etc. Please talk to me if you have any questions or concerns.

CLARETIAN YOUTH

This month we will be reflecting upon: Jesus and Relationships. This Tuesday we have our Learning Day (To Know God) learning about what Jesus says about relationships in Matthew 12: 46-50. We will also learn about the Sacrament of Matrimony!

Here is the rest of the month:

November 8: Learning Day

November 15: Fun Day

November 22: NO MEETING (Thanksgiving)

November 29: Service Day.

Claretian Youth parents, we want to take our youth to do some service for the less fortunate on November 29. In order to do this, you must come along with your child. Please email me to let me know if you can or cannot make it.

THIS WEEK

As I announced it last week, I will be away this Monday through Saturday. We will have Mass this Monday thanks to Fr. Knab; we will have Confessions and Mass this Thursday thanks to Fr. Norris; and we will have prayer services the rest of the week. Thanks for your understanding.

SANTO NINO CELEBRATION

The time is coming up soon. Please email me if you would like to help us organize our annual celebration of Santo Nino: frbyron@csufnewman.com

THANKSGIVING MASS AND LUNCHEON

We will be celebrating a special Mass on Thanksgiving Day (Thursday, November 24 at 8:00am). There is a wonderful tradition of bringing the food you will have for dinner to be blessed during the Mass (bread, fruits, cans, etc.). Let Karl know if you would like to serve at Mass.

Also, as we did last year, there are some college students who will not be going home (or have no family around to celebrate Thanksgiving with). Therefore, I will venture to cook a Thanksgiving luncheon for them (and any parishioner who doesn't have plans for that day), so heaven help us! If you would like to help me by bringing a hot dish to share, please, please let me know: frbyron@csufnewman.com. Thank you so much.

SAINTLY QUOTE

"For me prayer is a surge of the heart, it is a simple look towards Heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy."-St. Therese of Lisieux

HAVE A LAUGH

Two boys were walking home from church after hearing a strong preaching on the devil. One said to the other, "What do you think about all this Satan stuff?"

The other boy replied, "Well, you know how Santa Claus turned out. It's probably just your dad".

OUR HISTORY: With the encouragement and support of Fr. Sergio P Negro, our founding pastor, your Social Outreach Services (SOS) committee initiated our annual Christmas Giving Tree project in 1990. As we do today, parishioners were asked to take and return an Angel from our Giving Tree with their gift. This year marks the 32nd year of our St. Paul Catholic Newman Center Giving Tree!

In the early years of our annual Christmas giving project, we each filled and returned boxes with food and toys. The halls and foyer of St. Paul's Newman Center overflowed with gift boxes filled with food. These were distributed to families in parishes where there was great need.

Technology has allowed us to move from giving boxes and bags of food to gift cards. Not only has this saved many backs from having to lift and transport heavy boxes of food, it allows families to do their own shopping to prepare a Christmas meal in keeping with their own cultural traditions.

While we have added to our list, we have continuously supported several of the parishes included in the first year. This year we will continue to provide cards to the following eight communities: Orange Cove, Mendota, San Joaquin/Tranquility, Laton, St. Alphonsus, Mt. Carmel, St. Anthony Mary Claret and Stone Soup.

We invite you to take one or more Angels from our Giving Tree. Your generosity will be greatly appreciated by families throughout the greater Fresno area. Return the Angel(s) by placing them in the designated basket at the front desk or in the collection basket. We request that you write the $ value of the gift card(s) on the Angel, gift card or gift envelope.

The Angel Tree will be up on November 11. We ask that you return the Angel(s) with a gift cards attached no later than noon on Sunday, December 11th.

POLICY FOR ALL PARISH COMMUNICATION

The Newman Center's Communication's Team is in the process of reviewing policy and procedure for all communications (i.e. print, web, social media, etc.) within the Newman Center community. In order to ensure continuity of our mission, Catholic identity, Newman Center brand, grammar, content, standard of quality, etc. it is important to establish guidelines and best practices.

Therefore, all information associated with St. Paul Catholic Newman Center must reviewed by a member of the Communications Team prior to being printed, posted, or distributed. Please contact the Parish Office for more information.

All bulletin information must be submitted by 10:00am Wednesday to guarantee insertion in Sunday's bulletin.
Email to Communications@csufnewman.com.

Flu Season

As we transition into the cool months here in our Central Valley, we want to remind everyone to practice healthy habits as we gather for Mass and other events here at the parish. Bottles of hand sanitizer will be placed near the chapel entrances and masks are available upon request at the front desk. We will continue our practice of consuming the Eucharist under the species of the Body only until further notice. We will also remove water from the baptismal font unless there is a baptism during or immediately following a Mass. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Ofrenda... An Altar of Remembrance

For the month of November we continue our Newman Center tradition of remembering our departed loved ones. Throughout the month you are invited to bring a photo and place it on the space of remembrance where our campus ministry students have prepared the space in the Mexican tradition of Dia de Los Muertos. We recommend not bringing a one-of-a-kind photo (the office can make a copy upon request).
