THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C | NOVEMBER 13, 2022

Do you have a favorite verse or passage from Scripture? Many of us can quote John 3:16, one of St. Paul's exhortations (maybe Philippians 4:13: "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me"), or even a classic word from the Prophets (like Jeremiah 29:11: For I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord...). Personally, it's hard for me to choose one, although you'd think since I studied the Bible as a graduate student I would have a short list. When I'm presented with the Word of God this weekend, however, I hear some words that have become fast favorites and have committed themselves easily to memory. They come from Malachi, who, as a biblical prophet, is more known for closing out the pages of the Old Testament with the words "utter destruction" (yikes) than with any kind of wholesome lasting message. Thanks to the lectionary, we hear words that I feel are among the most powerful images in Scripture:

But for you who fear my name, the sun of justice will arise with healing in its wings.

The imagery is one of a renewed world. The rays of the sun sweep out to the earth's edges like wings that promise healing and hope for the cosmos, which surely was a message that Israel needed to hear in its time of exile and tribulation. Bible scholars think that the Prophet here intentionally borrows language from the surrounding Near Eastern societies that would have contrasted, contested, and ultimately helped shape Israel's identity as a people set apart. If you keep reading from that same portion of Malachi, you'll come upon another amazing piece of imagery:

And you will go out leaping like calves from the stall and tread down the wicked;
They will become dust under the soles of your feet, on the day when I take action, says the LORD of hosts.

Now, I didn't believe that cattle actually leap from the stall until somebody showed me a YouTube video of this happening. To me, this sheds new light on the idea of destruction that we hear of in the Hebrew Bible and elsewhere. The generative action of releasing calves from the stall into a new pasture is paired with God's judgment on the wicked. It's not Godzilla shooting his radiation breath over Tokyo, or the pestilence of Camus' Plague unleashed on an Algerian city. We simply see livestock stretching enthusiastically for their new home out of the stall. We don't need to read this stuff that symbolically. Jesus tells the people that, even should the very worst happen, God is working to bring that world of life-giving justice to fruition.

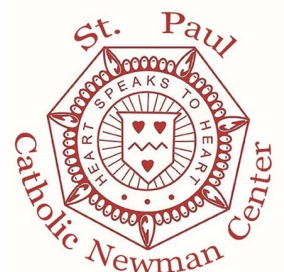

P.S., I have to admit that one of the ways I memorized this passage was by listening to the song "But For You Who Fear My Name" by The Welcome Wagon. The group is a husband-and-wife duo who recorded the music at their church in Brooklyn, New York. If you enjoy the indie-folk aesthetics of banjos, tambourines, and hand-clapping, do give it a listen!

In the Gospel today, Jesus reveals his secret to overcome hard times because He knows that at times life indeed could be like a valley of tears! And this is the secret: "trust." This Sunday we hear Jesus giving the worst case scenarios that could happen to us: from the destruction of the people's national and identity treasure (the temple) to being handed out by your own family to death. I am sure we all have felt like that at any point of our lives (or are experiencing it right now).

And this is the secret: "trust."

And how does Jesus respond to this? Check out what He says in the Gospel today: "Remember, you are not to prepare your defense beforehand, for I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking that all your adversaries will be powerless to resist or refute. (···) You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives." (Luke 21:5-19)

My parish family, no matter how bad things could get: trust! Trust that there is a God who made a promise in your Baptism that come what may, He will stand by you, with you and for you!

WORLD YOUTH DAY

Knights of Columbus John Cardinal Newman Council 9445 Presented a $544.00 check to Fr. Byron and a few of his youth going to World Youth Day. The check was presented on Tuesday November 1 at the Intergenerational Mass for All Saints Day. The Funds were raised from the Knights September Burrito Breakfast.

THANKSGIVING MASS AND LUNCHEON

We will be celebrating a special Mass on Thanksgiving Day (Thursday, November 24 at 8:00am). There is a wonderful tradition of bringing the food you will have for dinner to be blessed during the Mass (bread, fruits, cans, etc.). Let Karl know if you would like to serve at Mass.

Also, as we did last year, there are some college students who will not be going home (or have no family around to celebrate Thanksgiving with). Therefore, I will venture to cook a Thanksgiving luncheon for them (and any parishioner who doesn't have plans for that day), so heaven help us! If you would like to help me by bringing a hot dish to share, please, please let me know:

frbyron@csufnewman.com. Thank you so much.

HAVE A LAUGH

In the foyer of a church, a young boy was looking at a plaque with the names of men and women who had died in various wars. He asked the pastor, "Who are these people?" The pastor said, "Those are members from our church who died in service." The boy asked, "The early service or the second service?"

SAINTLY QUOTE

"In the hour of farewell, or, better, of leave-taking, I repeat once more that what matters most in this life is: our blessed Jesus Christ, his holy Church, his Gospel, and in the Gospel above all else the Our Father according to the mind and heart of Jesus, and the truth and goodness of his Gospel, goodness which must be meek and kind, hardworking and patient, unconquerable and victorious."

- St. John XXIII

Today is the kick off of the Annual Giving Tree Project. Please include those in need in your Christmas giving. These gift cards help families, in rural areas, with a Christmas meal or simply just a meal. Take an Angel or more to make a nice Christmas for a family.

Many families within our communities continue to suffer from food insecurity. To help these families, once again, your SOS (Social Outreach Services) Committee is setting up the annual Giving Tree. Your donation of food cards will help provide families with a Christmas meal or simply a meal or two.

Gift cards for Save Mart, Foods Co, Smart & Final, or Walmart may be donated.

All you need to do is:

1. Take a tag or tags from the tree.
2. Return each tag, attached to the gift card, to the front desk or collection basket by Sunday December 11 at noon. You don't have to wait until the last week! You can bring in your gift card donations starting right away.
3. Please indicate the dollar amount of your gift on the card(s), on the Angel, or on the envelope.

From the bottom of our hearts, thank you once again for being so generous to those in need. Should you have any questions, please feel free to call the Center and if needed, someone will call you back.

Blessings to All from your Social Outreach Services (SOS) Committee.

Flu Season

As we transition into the cool months here in our Central Valley, we want to remind everyone to practice healthy habits as we gather for Mass and other events here at the parish. Bottles of hand sanitizer and masks will be placed near the chapel entrance. (Please only take what you need for Mass we are providing them in concern for all our parishioners who may need one.) We will continue our practice of consuming the Eucharist under the species of the Body only until further notice. We will also remove the baptismal font unless there is a baptism during or immediately following a Mass. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Ofrenda... An Altar of Remembrance

For the month of November we continue our Newman Center tradition of remembering our departed loved ones. Throughout the month you are invited to bring a photo and place it on the space of remembrance where our campus ministry students have prepared the space in the cultural tradition. We recommend not bringing a one-of-a-kind photo (the office can make a copy upon request). We will be asking everyone to pick up their photos next weekend.
