FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

YEAR A | NOVEMBER 27, 2022

The Deacon's Speakin'

Dear sisters and brothers,

Advent is upon us – A time of waiting and of new beginnings.

Advent literally translates as “Arrival” or “Coming”. We are preparing for the commemoration of when Jesus arrived in Bethlehem. Jesus comes to us in so many ways in our daily lives and invites us to be open to receive Him and respond to His challenges. We are also asked to prepare for His Second Coming.

You will have noticed – or should have – a couple of things are a little different in this Advent season. Every season of the church year takes on a distinct tone and feeling. The most obvious change is that the colors of the season change to purple. You'll also notice that the “Gloria” is not sung or recited again until Christmas Eve masses. With the start of Advent a new church year has begun and with it comes a new reading cycle. We begin Year A, the year in which we systematically read the Gospel of Matthew. The Gospel is tied to its Jewish heritage and was written within a strongly Jewish/Christian community and particularly points out the ways in which Jesus is the fulfillment of the Judaic Law and the Prophets. Matthew's gospel originated around 80-90AD.

Today we remember to stay awake and stay alert. There's no time like the present to be about God's work. Since we don't know the day of our Lord's coming, God expects us to be like faithful members of the Master's household who have the Lord's interest at heart and not just our own self-interest. So, while we don't know the day or the hour we can ensure that our priorities and choices, values, and actions are consistent with the values of Christ in the Gospel. Our fundamental values must be based on love, compassion, generosity, empathy, justice, mercy, and giving aid to those in need.

If the Master comes unexpectedly, even in the ordinary circumstance and events of our daily lives, we hope and pray that our reaction will be joyful and welcoming.

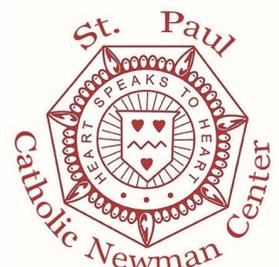

Peace and love,

Deacon John

“...we don't know the day or the hour we can ensure that our priorities and choices, values, and actions are consistent with the values of Christ in the Gospel.”

Mission Statement

Gifted by God, called by Christ, empowered by the Holy Spirit, St. Paul Catholic Newman Center is a parish committed to serving the academic community and all those who choose to be part of our parish family. We dedicate ourselves to bringing the transformative power of Christ to the world through word and action.

News!

WEEK OF NOVEMBER 27-DECEMBER 4

YOUNG ADULT BIBLE STUDY

Bible Study will not be meeting Monday, November 28. We will resume our sessions December 5th. See you then.

WEDNESDAY STUDENT NIGHT DINNER

Join us this Wednesday as we learn about our upcoming Church celebration of the Immaculate Conception of the Virgin Mary. Why does this matter? As always, join us for dinner at 6:30pm.

END OF THE SEMESTER" MASS

On Monday, December 5, Mass will be celebrated at Fresno State as the University ends the first semester of courses. All staff, faculty, and students are invited to attend this special Mass at Fresno State. Things will be getting busy and we could use some prayer. Join us December 5 at 12:15pm in the Library, Room 3125.

Evening of Remembrance

Monday, December 5
7:00pm in the Chapel

An evening to remember and honor our loved ones who have died. The evening offers a time of quiet, prayerful reflection, inspiring readings and peaceful music. There will also be a candle-lighting ritual as we say the names of those who have died. All those who have lost loved ones and their friends are invited.

From FR. BYRON MACIAS, CMF

Last Tuesday I drove to Temple City, California, to pick up 600 Bible Diaries to support our college students. I left at 8am; got there by 12:30pm. Then, I loaded the car and started driving my way back to Fresno. I became sleepy as I was driving back and there were times when it was really to stay fully awake.

Most of us at any point of our lives have experienced what it feels like to drive sleepy; falling asleep behind the wheel can be dangerous.

The same thing can happen to the "car" of our soul. We could fall asleep behind the wheel and it, too, can be dangerous.

"Stay awake" says the Lord himself in the Gospel today... and he says it twice! Why?

Staying awake as we drive the car of our soul makes trials more enduring; it makes us become aware of God's actions in our lives; and, it helps us avoid occasions of sin. This is why Jesus Christ, as we begin the new Church year, is reminding us thus...twice!

Let us stay awake by praying, by serving and by being counter-cultural: being light among darkness; being kind among meanness and being selfless in among selfishness.

COMMUNITY ANOINTING OF THE SICK

We will celebrate a communal Anointing of the Sick during all the Masses on Gaudete Sunday: December 11.

Gaudete means: "Rejoice in the Lord always." The theme of the day expresses the joy of Christmas anticipation; and receiving the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick (which is NOT Last Rites) is a wonderful way to strengthen our bodies, hearts and souls!

HIKE WITH MARY!

Our next hike will be on Saturday, December 3, 2022. Please sign up at frbyron@csufnewman.com

THANKSGIVING LUNCHEON

I really would like to thank all the wonderful "Angels" who made our Thanksgiving Luncheon possible. I also want to thank our very own Linda Ram for all her hard work in cooking, decorating and her uncanny hospitality. May God reward you all for your generosity.

CHRISTMAS GIFT WRAPPING

Please, help our Youth Group as they strive to raise funds towards their World Youth Day Trip. Bring your Christmas gifts to church when you come to Mass on December 4 and 18 and we will wrap them for you for a donation. Save the dates and help us by allowing us to help you. Please contact me if you have any questions: frbyron@csufnewman.com

LECTIO DIVINA

I'm so happy to share this and to really encourage you to have a time to deepen your experience with the Gospels during this Advent! Lynn Baker will be offering an Advent Lectio Divina time discussing the Sunday Gospels that we will be reading during Advent. She will offer it at 8:45 - 9:45am after the Wednesday morning Mass. Contact John Prandini for more information.

SAINTLY QUOTE

"Faith lifts the soul. Hope supports it. Experience says it must. And Love says let it be!" -St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

HAVE A LAUGH

Mrs. Smartt was fumbling in her purse for her offering when a large television remote fell out and clattered into the aisle.

The curious usher bent over to retrieve it for her and whispered, "Do you always carry your TV remote to church?"

"No," she replied, "but my husband refused to come with me this morning, and I figured this was the most evil thing I could do to him legally."

PARISH REGISTRATION

There are times you may need to provide verification of membership at the Newman Center, especially regarding the reception of any Sacraments and by Church law that requires strict record-keeping. For this reason, we ask you to please register as a member of the parish. To qualify for any verification the following criteria is required:

Hence, personal registration, active involvement and participation in worship and other activities on a regular basis are required to receive any documenting letter (e.g. for purposes of being a Catholic sponsor/godparent) of membership in St. Paul Catholic Newman Center.

You can register at the front desk, or through our website:
We also ask that you check in with the Parish Office if you have moved and periodically to verify that your contact information is current.

Giving Tree

Giving Tree Reminder: Please take an Angel from the Christmas Giving Tree to help families have a Christmas meal or simply have a meal. Angels attached to your gift cards should be returned no later than December 11 at noon.

Gift cards for Save Mart, Foods Co, Smart & Final, or Walmart may be donated.

All you need to do is:

- 1. Take a tag or tags from the tree.
- 2. Return each tag, attached to the gift card, to the front desk or collection basket by Sunday December 11 at noon. You don't have to wait until the last week! You can bring in your gift card donations starting right away.
- 3. Please indicate the dollar amount of your gift on the card(s), on the Angel, or on the envelope.

From the bottom of our hearts, thank you once again for being so generous to those in need. Should you have any questions, please feel free to call the Center and if needed, someone will call you back.

Blessings to All from your Social Outreach Services (SOS) Committee.

Your donations will help the following communities:

- Orange Cove
- Mendota
- San Joaquin
- Tranquility
- Laton
- St. Alphonsus
- Mt. Carmel
- St. Anthony Clare

WORLD YOUTH DAY UPDATE

"Envelope Express"

The Young Adult World Youth Day team are still holding their fundraiser this weekend and asking for your support! Select an envelope numbered from 1 to 100 and insert that same amount as your corresponding donation.

Please, be sure to return your envelope with your donation to the parish office by December 4 or to one of our team members, who will be available December 3 and 4, before and after each Mass.

A very Special Thank You to all who have already generously participated in the Envelope Express fundraiser.

For more information please contact Edgar Guzman. We appreciate your support!

Remember... it's as easy as picking an envelope!

Christmas Gift Wrapping

Bring your Christmas gifts to Church to let us help you...
Sunday, December 4
Sunday, December 18

Let us wrap them for you when you come for Mass for a donation to raise funds for World Youth Day!

Also, please donate new gift bags, end rolls or ribbons.

Save the dates and help us by allowing us to help you.

Please help send our Youth and Young Adults to World Youth Day in August 2023

POLICY FOR ALL PARISH COMMUNICATION

The Newman Center's Communication's Team is in the process of reviewing policy and procedure for all communications (i.e. print, web, social media, etc.) within the Newman Center community. In order to ensure continuity of our mission, Catholic identity, Newman Center brand, grammar, content, standard of quality, etc. it is important to establish guidelines and best practices. Therefore, all information associated with St. Paul Catholic Newman Center must reviewed by a member of the Communications Team prior to being printed, posted, or distributed. Please contact the Parish Office for more information.

All bulletin information must be submitted by 10:00am Wednesday to guarantee insertion in Sunday's bulletin.
Email to Communications@csufnewman.com.

Advent Lectio Divina

Lectio Divina or Holy Reading is an ancient and ever-new way to be present with Scripture which helps us to move into a deeper place to listen from the heart and respond to the Holy Spirit's invitation. During the weeks of Advent, you are warmly invited to join a circle of parishioners as we spend an hour together with the Sunday Gospel. We will meet on Wednesday mornings, through December 21, from 8:45am to 9:45pm after morning Mass in the Community Room. The group will be facilitated by Lynn Baker.

Men's Monthly Saturday Coffee Group

The Men's Saturday Coffee Group meets Saturday, Dec. 3rd from 7:30-9:00am in the Cafeteria. Join other men of the parish to form friendship bonds as we share our spiritual wisdom while reflecting on the Scriptures. Please join us and bring a friend!

Faith, Family & Friends

Faith, Family & Friends is the Newman Center's Religious Education and faith formation program for EVERYONE of all ages - Children, High School Youth and Adults. Faith, Family & Friends meets this Tuesday evening November 15, 6:00pm to 7:00 pm.

Individuals and families are invited to gather in the Grassy Courtyard from 5:00am to 5:45pm to bring and share a meal together. All are encouraged to gather by 5:45pm to pray before being released to attend classes. All classes begin at 6:00pm. Children's classes meet in Cardinal Newman Hall, High School Youth Group meets in St. John XXIII, and the Adult Group Sessions meet in the Main Building.

Adult Sessions: Family Life Topic: Objective and Subjective Morality with John Prandini; Scripture Topic: Read, Reflect and Discuss the Up-Coming Sunday Scripture Readings with Tina and Matt teNyenhuis; Catholic Faith Topic: Anti-Violence Commitments.

Family Life Ministries

Joy of Love Moms: The Joy of Love Moms Group invites families to the west playground after 9:30am Mass for an opportunity for children and families to meet, socialize and play together. Please join us!

Men's Scripture Reflection and Discussion Group: This ministry meets on Monday mornings at 8:30am in the Library after our 8:00am morning Mass.

Adult Confirmation

Our Confirmation session will not be meeting Monday, November 28.
