DID YOU KNOW?

The bishops of the United States invite us to ecological conversion through “solidarity, local discernment, and action”.

“[A]s Pope Francis wrote in Laudato si:

“The external deserts in the world are growing, because the internal deserts have become so vast.” For this reason, the ecological crisis is also a summons to profound interior conversion’ (no. 217).

Indifference and distance from one another have led to devastating consequences for God’s creation, including the poor. ...

Our world is hurtling toward unsustainable climate conditions that will affect the flourishing of people all over the planet. This unsustainable situation is, in part, caused by ever-increasing consumption enabled by the ability to accumulate with a simple click of the button, and incessant marketing to convince us that we all need more.

At the same time, our country is stepping back from global and national efforts to change course. Progress to slow climate change remains elusive, even while instances of extreme weather, wildfires, droughts, and floods are now common. Receiving the brunt of the burden are people seeking refuge from disasters, farmers struggling to adapt to erratic weather patterns, children suffering from dehydration and hunger, migrants who flee their homes due to loss of livelihood, and species declining in forests and coral reefs. Never has it been clearer that everything is interconnected. ... ‘[W]ithout climate justice there is no peace, without ecological conversion there is no future, without listening to the people there are no real solutions.’”

—USCCB, An Invitation to Ecological Conversion for U.S. Catholics, 2026

The bishops encourage us to advocate for laws that protect the environment and workers, and personally support companies that prioritize the environment and use renewable energy in our homes.

To read the bishops’ entire exhortation to ecological conversion, please visit: <https://www.usccb.org/resources/invitation-ecological-conversion-us-catholics>

Across the Diocese of Fresno, people are quietly struggling. Some have never asked for help before. But when the fridge is empty... when the lights are about to be shut off... when hope feels out of reach - Catholic Charities is there. In every corner of our Diocese, we’re offering food, rental assistance, support for immigrants, disaster relief, and so much more. And this work keeps moving forward because hearts like yours make space for mercy.

Whether your parish is big or small, in one of our Valley cities or rural communities, you are part of something bigger: a Church that catches people when they fall. Your compassion stretches far beyond your pews. It reaches your neighbors - people you may never meet, but whose lives are forever changed because someone cared.

So how can you help?
Pray for us.
Come volunteer with us.
Consider making a donation.

Together, we are the hands and feet of Christ in the world. Together, we are mercy in motion.

WEEKDAY ROSARY

May is the month of our Blessed Mother Mary. Please join us every weekday in the chapel, immediately following the 8:00 AM Mass, to pray the Rosary for peace and unity in our country. All are welcome!

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

We are looking for a Director of Music and Worship Ministries & Liturgical Coordinator.

The Director of Music and Worship is responsible for the planning, preparation, and execution of musical elements for parish worship. This role collaborates closely with the parish leadership to ensure that music and worship are not treated as standalone functions, but are fully integrated into the vision, preaching themes, liturgical seasons, and broader mission of the university parish.

The Director of Music and Worship is not simply a musician, but a liturgical leader who understands the Mass as prayer, proclamation, and encounter, and who forms others to serve within that vision. This position provides practical programs, resources, and support to all ministries to enrich the lives and well-being of the parishioners and families of St. Paul Catholic Newman Center throughout all phases of life.

To express interest in this position, please send a resume and cover letter to katie.fleener@fresnonewmancenter.org
