CAMPUS MINISTRY

DOG DAYS AT FRESNO STATE

Are you or someone you know attending Dog Days at Fresno State this Summer? Be on the lookout for our club – Catholic Student Association – tabling during the lunch hour.

Tuesday, July 7th 11:30am – 1:00pm

Tuesday, July 14th 11:30am – 1:00pm

HIRING

Do you want to work with young people discovering their faith? The office of Campus Ministry is hiring a part time Administrative Assistant. The Campus Ministry Administrative Assistant is responsible for maintaining on-site student support services, administrative support for the Campus Ministry Director, and coordination of ministry activities in the afternoon, evening and weekends as needed. Occasional driving for errands and to school campuses as needed.

YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY

YOUNG ADULT BIBLE STUDY

Join our Bible Study gathering Monday, June 29th at 6:00pm in the Student Lounge. We will continue to look at the Book of Acts. Come and learn alongside other young adults about how scripture is alive in our daily lives. We'll provide the reading, but you are welcome to bring your own bible as well.

TRAVELING

Edgar has returned from his 4-day retreat at the University of Notre Dame.

"What a beautiful campus but an even more beautiful time to meet others and go deeper into our call as ministers and how we are called to live Christ-centered lives alongside our community."

ALTAR FLOWERS

The altar flowers for this weekend are donated by Marilou Abenoja in memory of Fel Abenoja, and by Ted Falk in memory of Marcia Falk.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

DID YOU KNOW?

Wrapping-up our look at Pope Leo XIV's explanation of the "non-negotiable ... doctrine" of Catholic Social Teaching in his newly-released first encyclical Magnifica Humanitas, we see that this era tests our commitment to treating our brothers and sisters who are fleeing injustice with dignity, and calls for a synodal Church that is just and ministers to the poor:

"81. A litmus test for social justice today is the treatment of migrants, refugees and those forced to move due to poverty, violence, climate change and environmental disasters. The way a society treats them reveals whether its sense of justice is driven by fear or by the spirit of fraternity. Pope Francis urged us to see migrants not simply as a problem to be managed, but as a living image of the People of God on the move. [109] They are people with dignity, resources and dreams, who have the right to be treated with respect and to ask to become active members of the societies that welcome them. Social justice in this area entails at least two complementary commitments. On the one hand, this means protecting the rightful hopes of those forced to leave by ensuring safe and legal routes, dignified conditions for receiving them, and genuine pathways to integration. On the other hand, it means promoting the right to remain in one's homeland in peace and security by addressing the root causes that force people to migrate, including those linked to economic injustices and the climate crisis. When these rights are respected, migration can become an opportunity for encounter and mutual enrichment among peoples. ...

89. Living out justice in the Church means purifying ecclesial relationships and structures from distortions that give rise to inequality, lack of transparency and abuse of power. In this regard, listening to the victims of spiritual, economic, institutional, sexual and power-based abuse, as well as abuses of conscience, is an integral part of a journey toward justice, which includes acknowledging the harm done, just reparation and taking steps to prevent it from happening again. ... This ministry of service is expressed not only through our faith celebrated and lived in the Sacraments, and in the adoption of a synodal style, but also in the concrete sharing of goods. Following the example of the early Church, ecclesial resources need to be shared so that no one among us may be in need (cf. Acts 4:34), and so that their administration may support the mission of proclaiming the Gospel to the poorest. ... Only to the extent that we are open to the action of the Holy Spirit will these principles of Social Doctrine become incarnate in ecclesial life. In this way, the Church will be able to bear credible witness to society that seeking the common good together, with shared responsibility and fraternity, is not a utopia, but a real possibility. [117]" — Pope Leo XIV, Magnifica Humanitas (emphasis added) We invite you to read the entire encyclical, with its citations, at: <https://www.vatican.va/content/leo-xiv/en/encyclicals/documents/20260515-magnifica-humanitas.html>
