Sharing your wishes for end-of-life can bring you closer to the people you love. It's critically important. And you can do it.

THANK YOU

Dearest Parish:

"Blessed are those that mourn, for they shall be comforted." Mathew 5:4

On behalf of myself and my family, I would like to thank you all for standing with us in this time of unexpected and overwhelming grief. We have felt our entire village surrounding us with love and strength. Your compassionate presence during the visitation, velorio, service, luncheon and beyond have been a source of comfort as we continue to mourn our beloved Dan. I personally have been so touched by the generosity of Katie, Deacon John, the Women's Guild, Knights of Columbus, Food Recovery, and countless individuals who assisted in coordinating and volunteering to purchase, serve and prepare for both the all night Velorio and the wonderful luncheon after the service.

I cannot express our gratitude for our community parish that made us, and all our guests, feel united in our shared grief. Thank you for being a part of our village of hope, connection and love.

Blessings, Ada

DID YOU KNOW?

There are seven themes in the Church's Catholic Social Teaching doctrine about building a holy, just society. Over the next seven weeks, we will share the bishops' summary of each theme, with links to more information. The first is "life and ### dignity of the human person":

"The Catholic Church proclaims that human life is sacred and that the dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. This belief is the foundation of all the principles of our social teaching. In our society, human life is under direct attack from abortion and euthanasia. The value of human life is being threatened by cloning, embryonic stem cell research, and the use of the death penalty. The intentional targeting of civilians in war or terrorist attacks is always wrong. Catholic teaching also calls on us to work to avoid war. Nations must protect the right to life by finding increasingly effective ways to prevent conflicts and resolve them by peaceful means. We believe that every person is precious, that people are more important than things, and that the measure of every institution is whether it threatens or enhances the life and dignity of the human person." —United States Conference of Catholic Bishops'
