Caring for the Whole Person

Why Talking Matters

September 16, 2026
Save the date for the next Healthy Aging presentation:
The Conversation Project

One conversation can make all the difference. Consider the facts.

92% of people say that talking with their loved ones about end-of-life care is important 2018 survey results	80% of people say that if seriously ill, they would want to talk to their doctor about wishes for medical treatment toward the end of their life
32% have actually done so	7% report having had this conversation with their doctor. Source: Survey of Californians by the California HealthCare Foundation (2012)
60% of people say that making sure their family is not burdened by tough decisions is extremely important	82% of people say it's important to put their wishes in writing
56% have not communicated their end-of-life wishes. Source: Survey of Californians by the California HealthCare Foundation (2012)	23% have actually done it Source: Survey of Californians by the California HealthCare Foundation (2012)

Sharing your wishes for end-of-life can bring you closer to the people you love. It's critically important. And you can do it.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

We are looking for a Director of Music and Worship Ministries & Liturgical Coordinator

The Director of Music and Worship is responsible for the planning, preparation, and execution of musical elements for parish worship. This role collaborates closely with the parish leadership to ensure that music and worship are not treated as standalone functions, but are fully integrated into the vision, preaching themes, liturgical seasons, and broader mission of the university parish.

To express interest in this position, please send a resume and cover letter to katie.fleener@fresnonewmancenter.org

To view more information about the job, please view the Diocese of Fresno's employment page: https:// dioceseoffresno.org/employment.

DID YOU KNOW?

Continuing our series about the seven themes in the doctrine of Catholic Social Teaching about building a holy, just society, we look at the second theme, the “call to family, community, and participation”:

“The person is not only sacred but also social. How we organize our society — in economics and politics, in law and policy — directly affects human dignity and the capacity of individuals to grow in community.

Marriage and the family are the central social institutions that must be supported and strengthened, not undermined. We believe people have a right and a duty to participate in society, seeking together the common good and well-being of all, especially the poor and vulnerable. ...

‘Government should not replace or destroy smaller communities and individual initiative. Rather it should help them contribute more effectively to social well-being and supplement their activity when the demands of justice exceed their capacities. This does not mean, however, that the government that governs least, governs best. Rather it defines good government intervention as that which truly “helps” other social groups contribute to the common good by directing, urging, restraining, and regulating economic activity as “the occasion requires and necessity demands”’. (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Economic Justice for All, no. 124)” —United States Conference of Catholic Bishops’ “Call to Family, Community, and Participation” (emphasis added)

It was an honor to have the presence of Clovis Mayor Vong Mouanoutoua. Thank you to everyone for gathering as a community to celebrate the Eucharist and Fellowship with us!

All are welcome to attend and pray with us every 2nd Sunday of the month at 2:00 pm.
