MEMI SISTERS

To us, they are known as the MEMI Sisters (Misioneras Eucaristicas de Maria Inmaculada or Eucharistic Missionaries of Mary Immaculate). To farmworkers (campesinos), they are angels on Earth.

Some years back, Bishop Steinbock brought them here from Colima, Mexico, to catechize farmworkers and their families. Last year, over 120 children received their First Communion and over 80 were confirmed – all because of their commitment to bring the faith to communities usually not known to us. But they do more than that. In servicing the areas of Easton, Caruthers, Raisin City, and the Arboledas, Burrell and Maddox farmworker camps, the MEMI Sisters are often the first ones farmworkers turn to in times of need (when a family member passes away, when someone needs to be taken to the hospital, when someone is about to lose their home because they cannot pay the rent—the list is endless).

Even in the best of times, we know the work of farmworkers is difficult. Yet, it is their hands that plant, nourish and gather the food that is on our tables.

Many of the farmworkers have been out of work for months. Others are afraid to go to work, for fear of deportation. Many of the services they counted on have been shut down or greatly reduced. Now, it is up to us to come to their aid.

Newman Center's Community Engagement and Action Committee, CEAC, is continuing our "Be the Light" project. This time, we would like to bless the MEMI Sisters in their critical work of supporting our neighbors in need who work the farmlands surrounding us. We are asking for donations of pinto beans (8 to 10 lb. bag), white rice (10 lb.), Canola oil (32 to 48 oz.), Maseca [corn flour] (16 to 22 lb.), adult-size work socks and baby diapers. If you are unable to purchase any of these items, gift cards of $25 would be greatly appreciated from these stores: Walmart, FoodMaxx or Costco (and we would go make the purchases for you). COLLECTION WILL BE FROM AUGUST 29 TO SEPTEMBER 26.

Thank you for joining us in helping the MEMI Sisters continue to be of service to the farmworkers. And in so doing, may we remember "...as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me."

FOOTBALL PARKING PASSES

MEET OUR NEWEST SERGIO NEGRO SCHOLARS

Our Negro Scholars for the 2025-26 academic year have all been actively involved in the life of our parish community. You may have seen them serve as a lecturer and/or as a Eucharistic Minister, sing in a choir or serve as a cantor. They have assisted with OCIA, vacation bible school and Friday Night dinners. All are preparing for a vocation that will allow them to minister and assist others, each in his or her own way. Each will receive a $3,000 scholarship from the Sergio P. Negro Scholarship Endowment Fund.

Desi Salazar

Desi, whose home town is Visalia, sought out and immediately became active in the life of our Newman Center as soon as she enrolled at CSUF as a junior. Based on her involvement and vocational goal, she was selected as a Sergio Negro Scholar for her Senior year. Having now graduated with a B.A. this past spring, she will be pursuing an E.D.S degree in School Psychology with renewed support from the Sergio Negro Scholarship Fund. Desi intends to utilize her knowledge and training in support of children with disabilities and those facing emotional and behavioral challenges within K-12 schools.

Grace Meyer

Grace grew up attending the Newman Center with her active family. She's served as a alter server, attended confirmation and became leader of that program, leading small groups, meetings, and retreats. Most recently, she's been involved with the creation of our Community Garden and a volunteer for our Vacation Bible School. Having already entered the health field as a Registered Nurse, Grace is now pursuing education to become a Family Nurse Practitioner with a foundation in functional medicine. She expressed that her deepest desire is to use her vocation as a ministry – one that brings healing to bodies, souls and communities.

Aiden Purtell

Aiden is the third generation of an extended family that has attended and actively supported our Newman Center since its formation. Like many who've grown up in our parish, Aiden attended VBS as a camper and later, returning to serve as a counselor. While in high school, he attended and became Confirmed here at St. Paul's, a program that he believes has been a huge part of his development as a Catholic. Aiden is entering his senior year at the prestigious Cleveland Institute of Music majoring in Piano Performance. He reminds us that the beauty in music and the arts, renews and replenishes our souls.

Leilani Castillo

Upon graduation from Lemoore High School, Leilani enrolled at CSUF and quickly found her way to St. Paul Catholic Newman Center. She will now be entering her junior year, majoring in Liberal Studies. Upon obtaining her degree, she intends to help young children grow academically through teaching. Her volunteer work with children in the Fresno County Migrant Program was “highly influential in my choosing to become a teacher”. She is currently part of our Campus Ministry Leadership team, had the honor of being confirmed here at Newman, and serves as a Eucharistic Minister, among other activities.

Jenna Sainz

Jenna shared that being part of the Newman Center is what sparked her passion for social justice. She found fulfillment in helping others, especially those who are in need. A 2010 graduate of UC Davis, having worked at the Newman Center and then becoming a mom, she decided to return to school with goal of earning a Masters in Social Work. Her intent is to become a medical social worker. While her duties as a mom and student have recently usurped her time, Jenna has volunteered as a Stephen Minister, served as a Eucharistic Minister and assisted with Young Adult Ministries.

Brianna Vazquez

Brianna first started attending Newman while in high school and completing confirmation training. After attending UCSB, returning to Fresno and marrying, she and her husband “reconnected” with the Newman Center in 2019. She has been an active team member of the OCIA team for the past four years. Work experience as a teacher’s aide has led her to return to school to obtain a Master’s of Education in Early Childhood Education and Early Childhood Special Education. She is passionate about serving the preschool special needs population and helping those with autism or other disabilities succeed.
