Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B

August 22, 2021

Readings: Jos 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b; Eph 5:21-32 or 5:2a, 25-32; Jn 6:60-69

Dear Newman Center Family,

Next month we will celebrate the Season of Creation and you can be part of it!

Since 1989, the Orthodox Church has been celebrating the month of September, up through the Feast of St. Francis, October 4th, as the Season of Creation.

In 2015 Pope Francis wrote his landmark encyclical “Laudato Si: On Care for our Common Home”. The Roman Catholic Church has been a major partner in this global effort to celebrate creation by committing to “Hear the cry of the earth, the cry of the poor”.

This year St. Paul Catholic Newman Center wants to join millions of people of good will across the globe to see what we can do to start to address personally, locally, and communally, the grave ecological challenges facing us.

For that reason, we are planning to form a Creation Care Team here at the Newman Center. If you would like to join us on this urgent project, here are a few things we hope you’ll do:

1. For much more information, resources and videos on climate change, creation care teams, and the U.S. Catholic response to Laudato Si, Pope Francis’ encyclical on Care for our Common Home, visit www.catholicclimatecovenant.org
2. For a five minute summary of Laudato Si, please watch: Top Ten Takeaways from Laudato Si: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=a\_lqFTYLc\_4
3. Sign up to join us on September 8th at 7:15PM for a kickoff virtual meeting to get to know each other and share our vision together. Please RSVP here: https://docs.google.com/forms/d/14OY\_gprM5cPpGi6wzNVkRHEbCrqWFBFwceCO7LfFk4M/viewform?edit\_requested=true
4. Join us on September 8th at 7:15pm, using this link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/85712412875>

Donations Needed

Wednesday Student Nights

We need food for our students gathering for our Wednesdays Student Nights. Please help us feed them!

Here is how you can help:

- 1) Sign up for a designated week by contacting Edgar Guzmán
- 2) You can purchase a meal (5 people) from a restaurant or fast food chain and bring it to the Newman Hall on Wednesday after 5pm.

You can donate a gift card to any restaurant or fast food chain and drop it off at the front office throughout the week (Monday - Thursday from 9:00am to 3:00pm).

Because of COVID restrictions, we cannot accept hot meals made at home; we can either cook it here or purchase it from a restaurant.

Student Lounge

As the school semester begins we will continue offering our study lounge to students and others. As an added bonus we like to offer a few snacks and drinks. If you'd like to donate an item(s) see our list below.

- microwavable ready meals
- water bottles
- snack size chips
- granola bars
- pastry snacks

School Supply Drive

Our annual school supply drive is underway. Many stores still have their school supplies on sale. This drive not only benefits our students but also the Renaissance Scholar Program at Fresno State. We continue to partner with them to help the many students who have aged out of the foster care system and plan to continue their education. You may drop off items at the front office.

Thank you so much for being part of this mission; may God reward you for your generosity.

Young Adult Mass

Every Sunday, we host a young adult Mass at 7:00pm. This is an opportunity for students, young adults, and young professionals to come together and be among others our age giving thanks to God.

Join us before Mass at 6:00pm for a prayer activity followed by Mass at 7:00pm.

Weekly Justice Challenge

If there is a message to hear this week, it is about being ready. The parables foretell the end of the world... be ready for you don't know when that might be. For Christians, that means we need to believe in, think about, and do the right things in life; we need to have our priorities in order. So what does this include? Feed the hungry, clothe the naked, visit those in prison and give drink to those who are thirsty. Spend your life doing these things and you will be prepared. Why is that? These things shape our hearts and make us humble and willing to put others before ourselves. They help us to see the face of Christ in our midst. It is the crazy paradox of being a Christian. To be first, you must be last. To be a leader, you must be a servant. Are you ready? What are you spending your time on these days? The challenge this week is to look at your calendar... personal and family. How are you spending your time? Read Matthew 25:31-46, and make sure some of those things make it on your calendar each week.

Faith, Family & Friends 2021-22

Faith, Family & Friends is the Newman Center's innovative approach to religious education for EVERYONE of all ages. It is adult oriented, family centered religious education and faith formation for our whole parish community. It offers faith formation for children, individual adults, couples, and families. Members of our parish become better acquainted and become better educated Catholics and lifelong learners of the faith. Adults have their choice of educational offerings in the topic areas of Scripture, Catholic Faith, and Family Life (Relationships/Parenting).

Because it is family centered, it is mandatory for at least one parent or guardian to attend with their child(ren).

Children are never allowed to be dropped off and picked up. Sacramental preparation programs for First Communion and Reconciliation are a part of FF&F. Please join us!

To register online, please go to our website by clicking this link: www.csufnewman.com. You will find registration forms for Families (Adults with children) and one for Adults (without children).

The first mandatory meeting for parents with children will be held on Tuesday, September 28, 2021 at 6:30pm.

FF&F sessions for EVERYONE (Families and Individual Adults) will be held from 6:00pm to 7:15pm beginning October 5th!

Family Life Ministry

Ignatian Spirituality: Spiritual Discernment for Everyday Living. This course will introduce you to St. Ignatius of Loyola and to a deeper understanding of his rules for spiritual discernment as a guide in your everyday life.

Meetings will be held Thursday evenings, September 2 – December 16, 2021 from 5:30pm to 7:00pm in Cardinal Newman Hall – Room 103. No Fee. Facilitated by John Prandini, Director of Ministries.

Participants need to purchase the book, The Discernment of Spirits: An Ignatian Guide for Everyday Living, by Timothy M. Gallagher on their own prior to the first session from wherever books are sold. To register contact John Prandini at prandinij@csufnewman.com.

Men's Scripture Reflection Discussion Group will begin meeting Monday mornings, September 13, after 8:00am Mass from 8:30am to 9:30am in the Library. Facilitated by John Prandini.

Live Streaming Volunteers Needed

As many of you know, the livestream Masses have enabled us to connect with so many people otherwise unable to join us in person. To meet this ministry need, we are still looking for volunteers to serve on our live-streaming team. Experience with smartphones and the Facebook app helps, but is not required. We will train you and you will be a blessing for our online audiences! Email our Liturgy Director Karl Gurney at karl@csufnewman.com to let us know you are interested!

Freedom to Choose

This Week's Readings at Mass

- ▶ Joshua 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b - Decide today whom you will serve
- ▶ Ephesians 5:21-32 or 5:2a, 25-32 - Christian wives and husbands
- ▶ John 6:60-69 - Effect of the bread of life discourse

The Judeo-Christian tradition believes in human free will. In the garden of Eden, Adam and Eve chose freely to disobey God and eat of the forbidden tree. Yes, Eve was tempted by the serpent, but she didn't have to eat the fruit; she chose to, and so did Adam.

In the first reading from the Book of Joshua today, Joshua reminds the people that they have the freedom to choose whom they want to worship. They can worship the Lord God who brought them out of slavery in Egypt or they can worship the gods of the people where they live. Joshua gives the people a choice but tells them, "As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord" (Josh. 24:15).

Jesus also respects the free will of the people he encounters. Throughout the Gospels, he invites people to follow him (fishermen, tax collectors, the rich young man, etc.), but he never forces them.

In the Gospel reading today, Jesus knows he has stirred up a great controversy when he declared that people must eat his flesh and drink his blood in order to have eternal life. It is not surprising that at this point in the Gospel some people who had been following him decide to turn away from him because they can't accept this teaching. He allows them to walk away freely and then asks the twelve apostles, "Do you also wish to go away?" Peter replied, "Lord, to whom can we go? You have the words of everlasting life" (Jn. 6:68).

Jesus offers us the same freedom to choose for ourselves whom we will worship. If we choose to follow him, he wants us to do it freely, without being "guilted" into it or doing it out of coercion or force. Jesus will not override our free will.

Questions of the Week

- 1 What are other "gods" in our society that you are tempted to worship (money? a particular career path? education? possessions?)?
- 2 Jesus offers us the same invitation as the disciples. Do we still want to follow him, even if we can't wrap our minds around his teaching about the Bread of Life? Why?
