THE DEACON'S SPEAKIN'

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Today's Gospel presents the Beatitudes according to Luke. They're very different than the Beatitudes found in Matthew's Gospel. Everything is different, even the setting. In the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus climbs a hill and delivers the Sermon on the Mount. Matthew's Gospel is written for Jewish Christians. It speaks about new attitudes, a new mind set necessary for the Kingdom of God. The heart must be pure, the spirit must be poor, those who mourn will be comforted, those who hunger and thirst for righteousness will receive the Kingdom of Heaven.

The Beatitudes in Matthew tell of some of the changes that the ancient Jews had to make in order to become Christians. Luke's Gospel was written by a gentile convert, Luke, and addressed primarily to gentile converts. His audience was poor - many were slaves or low-born. Their choice to follow Christ only made their situation worse, because just as it is today, Christianity was counter-cultural. They were being persecuted and were suffering. Jesus presents His message to them after coming down from the mount to the level plain. He was on the same level with them. He was also poor, suffering and persecuted. Jesus is speaking to His disciples who have taken risks and made sacrifices to follow Him. They have, as Jeremiah encouraged in the first reading, trusted in the Lord. Jesus is setting guidelines for what makes disciples true disciples. They turned their backs on materialism and chose a life which followed Jesus and would, in the short term, bring them deprivation, sorrow, hatred and rejection, but ultimately would bring them eternal happiness.

Luke presents only four Beatitudes. They don't have to do with attitudes, they deal with the present condition. "Blessed are you who are poor now. Blessed are you who are hungry now. Blessed are you who are weeping now. Blessed are you who are ostracized now." Luke then adds four woes - which are not present in Matthew's version. "Woe to you who are rich. Woe to you who are filled now for you will be hungry. Woe to you who laugh now. Woe to you who are flattered by those who really don't care about you." These additions can make us feel uncomfortable. Being wealthy isn't necessarily evil. Thankfully, there are many in our society who have heard the message and taken it to heart and shared their abundance with those who are less fortunate.

However, our expectations are enormous and often blind us to the needs of the majority of the world. Our affluence can become a disease which can make us indifferent to the poverty right in our own neighborhoods. For those in our society who are indifferent to the costs of their wealth on the less fortunate, Luke presents the Woes. They are a "wake up" call - to look beyond our own immediate pleasures and excesses and to consider those who are left out.

Peace and Love,

Deacon John

The group is a member of the World Community for Christian Meditation. Meetings are facilitated by Benita Lankford.

For information email contact John Prandini at prandinij@csufnewman.com.

RCIA

God has blessed us with many people wanting to become Catholic. We have three candidates and eight catechumens in the catechumenate and another five in Inquiry. In two weeks these five inquirers will go through their Rite of Acceptance but have run out of sponsors. We desperately need another five sponsors. If you are a practicing Catholic and have received baptism, confirmation and Holy Eucharist, you qualify. If you are interested in serving as a sponsor and share your faith with these new candidates and catechumens, or if you have questions about sponsoring, please contact Charles Arokiasamy at rcia@csufnewman.com or 559-286-6372. Or leave your contact information at the front office and we will follow up with you.

It is a lot of fun being a sponsor and you will find yourself learning many things you did not know about your own faith.

Creation Care Tips

"Blessed are those who trust in the Lord, whose trust is the Lord. They shall be like a tree planted by water, sending out its roots by the stream. It shall not fear when heat comes, and its leaves shall stay green; in the year of drought it is not anxious, and it does not cease to bear fruit." - Jeremiah 17:7-8

Many of us have a real obsession with lawns. Indeed, all the time invested in lawn care and grooming reflects this: laying down sod or seeding, removing weeds, mowing, watering, fertilizing... but do all these efforts produce a harvest? No. We can't eat grass. Here is an idea: replace your lawn with plants that are drought tolerant, native to your locale, and/or will produce food to eat (trees or vegetable gardens). Some municipalities have programs now that offer rebates for those converting their lawns to less-thirsty green spaces. You will never have to mow again, and depending on what you replace your lawn with, you might never have to water again.

Weekly Justice Challenge

Justice Challenge: February is Black History Month. In addition, we celebrate President Lincoln's birthday on February 12. Lincoln wrote the Emancipation Proclamation to restore to African Americans their God-given right to be treated as human beings fully equal in God's eyes with the rest of society. Jesus told us his mission was to emancipate people from the things which oppressed them—poverty, enslavement, despair, whatever broke the human spirit. Your challenge this week is to emancipate someone from injustice. Who needs to be freed from oppression? Is it the kid at school who is constantly picked on? Is it the worker who is discriminated against? Is it the elderly shut-in? Whom will you liberate?

Second Collection Next Weekend

Next week our special collection supports the Catholic Communication Campaign. From Fr. Byron

St. Valentine's is around the corner, so make sure you get your candy on time! Speaking about St. Valentine's Day, I remember a couple making a promise to each other: "I promise to love you although I can't promise I won't hurt you." Sounds harsh, but it makes some sense... and it does happen! The thing about life is that we indeed go through ups and downs. One day we are rich in joy and one day we are poor of it. One day we are filled with hope and one day we are hungry for it. One day we laugh and one day we cry. One day we are praised and one day we are hated or insulted. One day people say we are angels and one day people say we are evil. Jesus knows this and that's why in the Gospel this weekend he makes a beautiful promise to us all: your reward will be great in heaven when we live a life emulating the Son of Man.

Pay close attention to what's going on in the Gospel. Jesus is preaching to all these people from "all of Judea ... and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon"

Then, he raises his eyes towards the people and says:

"Blessed are you who are poor,
for the kingdom of God is yours.
Blessed are you who are now hungry,
for you will be satisfied.
Blessed are you who are now weeping,
for you will laugh.

Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, and denounce your name as evil on account of the Son of Man.

Rejoice and leap for joy on that day! Behold, your reward will be great in heaven."

Blessed are you, good people of St. Paul Catholic Newman Center when you are poor or hungry or weeping or hated on account of doing your best to live a life that reflects Jesus' revolution of love, humility, hope and acceptance; for that will never be in vain.

Jesus knows life is not easy, but he gives us hope, hope that no one loves in vain; no one hopes in vain; no one prays in vain. Yet, sometimes it is very hard to find that hope when it gets buried on layers of hate, pride or spiritual narcissism –which eventually hurt us. Just as couples can promise to love but can't promise not to hurt, Jesus promises us hope and liberation even if our faith is put to the test. That is his promise: the promise of the Son of Man, who is stronger than anything, even death! Let us embrace it and let our lives remind others about it.

Happy Valentine's Day; I do love you but God loves you like no one else can. Pray for me as I am giving the Mission Novena at The National Shrine of St. Jude in Chicago. See you on the 22nd!

Claretian Youth

There is Claretian Youth this Tuesday. The theme this month is "Jesus Cries" – Luke 20: 41-44. This Tuesday is Fun Day (To love God and make God known to others) and we will be having water games; please dress accordingly.

Saintly Quote

Wheelchair Sunday

The Knights of Columbus have been partners with the American Wheelchair Mission since 2003 under the umbrella of the Global Wheelchair Mission. Through this program, the Knights of Columbus have delivered wheelchairs to destinations worldwide or right here at home to veterans, retired Priests or Religious, and other local needs. Through your generous donations, you can answer the prayers of the poorest of the poor, and our veterans in need, to help them gain mobility, hope and freedom. For each $150 gathered in donations, it will sponsor and deliver a brand new wheelchair that would retail for over $500. Your donation of any amount will help the Knights change lives in an immediate and tangible way.

This weekend is the Knights of Columbus "Wheelchair Sunday". Brothers from our council will be available to accept donations for the wheelchair program in the lobby after all Masses. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Foundations Course for RNs

The Diocese of Fresno is once again offering the Foundations course for RN's wishing to become certified as a Faith Community Nurse (FCN). This course is being offered March 3 -6, 2022. Completing the FCN Foundations course will enable an RN to begin and manage a Health Ministry program within their respective parish as well as provide 34 CEU's. If interested and would like additional information please contact: Roxanna Stevens RN, FCN at Roxanna@dioceseoffresno.org or 488-7474, ext.108 JoAnn LoForti, RN, FCN at jloforti@dioceseoffresno.org; or 488-7474,ext. 108.

Parish Registration

There are instances when, as a member of the parish, you must provide verification of membership at the Newman Center. This is necessary as it applies to the administration of Sacraments and the required record- keeping. For this reason, we ask you to please register as a member of the parish.

Verification (written) of membership in this non-territorial parish of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Fresno may be provided for any baptized Catholic who fulfills any of the following:

- registered in our parish database for a period of six months or more
- reference of regular parish involvement by a member of the parish pastoral staff
- identification as a regular member of our worshipping community (attendance at Mass on the Lord's Day) by a member of our pastoral staff

Since we, unlike other Catholic parishes, do not have a specific territorial area, designated by parish boundaries, living in the vicinity of the St. Paul Catholic Newman Center does not automatically mean membership in this parish. (The territorial parish area in which SPCNC is located covers portions of Saint Anthony of Padua parish and Sacred Heart parish.) Hence, personal registration, active involvement and participation in worship and other activities on a regular basis are required to receive any documenting letter (e.g. for purposes of being a Catholic sponsor/godparent) of membership in SPCNC.

Good News or Bad News?

This Week's Readings at Mass

- ▶ Jeremiah 17:5-8 - True wisdom
- ▶ 1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20 - The resurrection and faith
- ▶ Luke 6:17, 20-26 - The great discourses

The word gospel comes from the Greek word meaning “good news.” At some points, Luke’s Gospel might seem like “good news for the poor” and “bad news for the rich,” though, as in today’s passage. Matthew’s version of the Beatitudes includes only positive promises such as “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of God.” Luke’s version, however, includes strong words from Jesus to those who are living in comfort now.

We get the sense that Jesus’ audience here includes some very poor people to whom he speaks directly. “Blessed are you who are poor... blessed are you who are hungry now... blessed are you who weep now,” not the more generic “blessed are the poor in spirit... blessed are those who mourn.”

The crowd must also include some wealthy listeners because Jesus also addresses them directly “But woe to you who are rich... woe to you who are full now...” There are many other places in this Gospel (and the Acts of the Apostles, which Luke also wrote) where Jesus speaks bluntly about wealth, poverty, and practices that contribute to economic inequality.

Although Jesus says some things that are hard for the rich to hear, he doesn’t dislike rich people. He did banquet with them frequently, after all! Jesus came to free everyone from what holds them captive, and he knows that for some rich people it is their wealth which imprisons them. His words may sound like “bad news” on the surface, but if they help free people and move them towards greater generosity, justice, and trust in God rather than possessions, then ultimately Jesus is speaking good news.

Questions of the Week

- 1 What strikes you first when you hear this version of the Beatitudes? What is your initial reaction?
- 2 Which line of the Beatitudes most speaks to you today?
