The Deacon's Speakin'

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

The longer we live, the greater the storehouse of our memories. My "storage" room is bulging at the seams! Much of our memory is a mixed bag of things we're proud of and some things we'd rather not remember. We've had our successes and failures, good times and bad, fulfilling relationships and ones that ended bitterly, promises we've kept and events we wish had never happened. In reflective moments we might be saddened by some bad memories. Many of us may even look back to the innocent days of our childhood and wish we could turn back the clock and start all over again. Whatever our feelings are, most of us can relate to the leper in today's gospel who pleads to Jesus, "If you wish, you can make me clean".

Unfortunately, there's no white-washing that can undo the past, no recapturing the innocence of childhood. There is good news for us however, as there was for the leper – we can be made clean. Maybe not simply through a word from God, but clean nonetheless. What makes us "clean" is taking ownership of all our past. In order to become clean we must "come clean". We must own our lives in their completeness – that means the bad with the good, the sour with the sweet, and the pain with the pleasure. Owning our past prevents it from ever owning us and having an influence over us in our effort to build a better life for ourselves.

Owning up to our past and fully accepting responsibility for our past – whatever that contains – allows us to deal more effectively with the present. Instead of wallowing in self-pity for "what might have been" we empower ourselves for "what is and what can be". The past, good or bad, is just a storage closet of experiences that we use in our spiritual growth. We all make mistakes and if we continue growing there'll be more mistakes ahead. But if we're a little wiser and a little more confident of the right thing to do, our failings will have served a purpose. And for all our failings, we're never failures. Like any work of art, we're composed of darkness and light. It's all part of our picture. We make mistakes, but we're not mistakes. That's the good news of today's gospel.

Peace and love,

Deacon John

Electronic giving is the preferred, easy, safe and secure way to give to our parish. To schedule a recurring electronic gift directly from your bank account or credit card, please contact Carol at carol@csufnewman.com.

Please remember to make your payments accordingly. Thank you again for your generous support of St. Paul Catholic Newman Center!

Weekly Justice Challenge

Justice Challenge: This Sunday's Gospel is about the leper who touches Jesus' heart. While leprosy isn't rampant in our communities today, many people suffer from the poverty of relationships which lepers suffered in Jesus' time. There are people in our own communities who have no one who loves them except God. Sadly, they may not even experience God's love because they have no human love to help them recognize God's love. They are the lonely, the alienated; some are scared, angry, or wounded. Your challenge this week is to take the love in your heart beyond your immediate circle of loved ones and extend it to someone who is alone. What can you do as a family or household to bring love into this person's life? And can you commit to making it more than a one-time act of kindness and care? How can you continue to let this person know that he or she is not alone in this world, that God loves them, and that you do, too?

Food Distribution

We have a drive-thru food distribution every Friday from 3:30pm to 5:30pm. Bags are distributed in our east parking lot to each vehicle. The entrance to the parking lot is at the east side gate and vehicles exit through the south gate. Please make sure to wear a mask.

Second Collection Next Weekend

Next week, our special collection is for the Catholic Communication Campaign. This campaign connects people with Christ in the United States and in developing countries around the world through the Internet, television, radio, and print media. 50% of funds collected remain here in the Fresno Diocese to fund local communications efforts. Your support helps spread the Gospel message! To learn more, visit www.usccb.org/cc.

Donations

You can make your donations to our parish through several portals. Sign up to make your donation to the Newman Center via electronic funds transfer (ACH), credit card, PayPal, or your banks online banking system. You can designate your donation to Sunday Contributions and / or special gifts automatically made weekly or monthly. One can also schedule reoccurring online donations. For more information send an email to Carol at carol@csufnewman.com. We appreciate your support!

Congratulations

Congratulations to our scouts Ethan Downer, Diego Anderson and Joshua Fagan, who were awarded with the Ad Altare Dei emblem at the Scout Mass presided by Bishop Joseph Brennan last Saturday, February 6. Ethan, Diego and Joshua have been active in our community of faith since they were infants and have not only enriched our parish, but also our parish has enriched them. Pray for these three young men who are wonderful witnesses of all the good things and ministries happening here.

Stations of the Cross

Please join us on Facebook every Friday during Lent for Stations of the Cross. We will begin this Friday, February 19 at 6:00pm.

Love Trumps Laws

This Week's Readings at Mass

- ▶ Leviticus 13:1-2, 44-46 - On leprosy
- ▶ 1 Corinthians 10:31-11:1 - Imitation of Christ
- ▶ Mark 1:40-45 - Healing of a leper

When the leper came to Jesus to ask for healing, he must have already heard the news that Jesus had healed many people with all sorts of sicknesses. He seems certain Jesus has the power to help him too, so he boldly says what he is thinking. "If you wish, you can make me clean." Jesus has never met the man before, but he doesn't hesitate to show that he does wish for him to be cured.

In biblical times, leprosy referred to many kinds of skin problems. Some conditions were highly contagious, so laws kept those infected from coming into contact with the healthy population. However, as the First Reading from Leviticus stated, anyone with so much as a scab, sore, or skin blemish that could possibly be leprosy was condemned to a life outside of the community. Those unlucky enough to have imperfect skin were supposed to avoid physical contact with others and make it clear that they shouldn't be touched.

It took a lot of courage for a leper to come into town (remember, he was supposed to stay clear of others) and approach Jesus. According to the laws, Jesus should never have touched the man because that would have made Jesus automatically unclean too. However, Jesus refuses to play by the rules that doom some people to a life of loneliness and isolation. Instead, his pity and compassion ruled the day. Love trumped laws.

Questions of the Week

- 1 When have you seen someone act with courage and break an unjust law?
- 2 What laws, rules, or customs do you follow that Jesus might be inviting you to re-think?
