Second Sunday of Lent, Year B

February 28, 2021

Readings: GN 22:1-2,9A,10-13,15-18; ROM 8:31B-34; MK 9: 2-10

The Deacon's Speakin'

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

In this weekend's gospel we read of the disciples' mountain top experience – a drastic conversion. God is revealed to them. They saw Jesus in all His Glory. Unfortunately, it would be all downhill after that.

Those of us who don't have a mountain top experience tend to want to settle down too. If you're over 65, as I am, you might well expect that there aren't many more journeys to take or conversions to make. What was going to happen has pretty much happened – Right? – Wrong! Abraham was 75. By 75 you've pretty much seen it all! Not much more is to be expected, but for Abraham it was just the beginning. At 75 he was told, "Go forth from the land of your kinfolk . . . to a land I will show you. I will make a great nation and I will bless you." Well, to make a long story short, it would take another 25 years for the promise to take shape. He would be 100 and his wife Sarah, would give birth to Isaac. In fact, he would live to the ripe old age of 175. It's a good thing he didn't settle down permanently in his seventies.

When I was 55 I foolishly imagined I had seen it all. How wrong I was! By the time I was 65 I realized I hadn't dreamed ten years earlier of the pain that humans could suffer, the happiness we might enjoy, the sheer joy of life that awaits us. I would never have imagined what I've seen and done since my ordination, 18 short years ago. And there's always more. There's always another call as we journey on earth. As I've told you before, never would I have imagined that I'd be called to shepherd this community at age 68.

A woman, who thinks she's had enough of her professional work, discovers a marvelous new way to love and heal her fellow humans. A widower, who at age 70, decides to go to the seminary and is ordained a priest. A couple married fifty years attends a marriage encounter to help them understand each other more fully. So, it is true, the call never ends. The work is never done. We don't need to build a tent just yet. Regardless of the difficulties that come with discipleship, St. Paul reminds us to "Bear your share of hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God." How can we understand and appreciate Easter Sunday unless we experience Good Friday?

Peace and love,

Deacon John

Faith, Family & Friends

Faith, Family & Friends is our parish religious education and faith formation program for EVERYONE - Single adults, couples, and families!

During this time when we are unable to meet together in large groups, we invite those of you who wish to receive Religious Education & Faith Formation resources for adults and / or children to register.

Adults: Register for our FF&F Adult Religious Education series by emailing John Prandini, Director of Ministries, at prandinij@csufnewman.com with your name, primary email address, and cell phone number. You will then be placed on the list to receive these free resources.

Recommendation: All families with children join the Joy of Love Moms - Family Ministry led by Jakki Pucheu. Joy of Love Moms is sending out weekly emails that provide great ideas and information on fun faith formation activities for children and parenting suggestions to help you reduce stress and improve family communication. You can sign up by sending an email to joyoflovemoms@gmail.com requesting to be put on their email mail list.

For additional information contact

Adults: John Prandini, MA at prandinij@csufnewman.com
Children: Sr. Kathleen Drilling at skd@csufnewman.com

Parish Lenten Reconciliation Service

As we live out our Lent this year, we will hold a special Reconciliation Service this year. Frs. Paul and Byron will hold Confessions on March 23, 24 and 25 from 2:00pm to 6:00pm at our regular Confession site (outside the Cafeteria on the patio).

To help you prepare an examination of conscience, we will post a video reflection/examination on our parish website and social media. You do not need to make reservations.

Please take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to do a good spring cleaning of the heart! Also, please help us spread the word. Please contact Fr. Byron for more information by emailing frbyron@csufnewman.com.

Claretian High School Youth

Hey High Schoolers! We have a youth group for you here at the Newman Center kicking off on Tuesday, March 16 at 6:00pm!

Youth ages 14-18 are welcome! We want to grow together in Catholic spirituality, Scripture and Missionary zeal.

Contact Fr. Byron for more information by emailing frbyron@csufnewman.com.

Family Life Ministry

A Promise of Hope and Healing

Although our campaign has ended, thank you to the generosity of our parishioners; we are still receiving new and additional pledges. We have received $215,382.70 in pledges and have received 97% of that amount.

Electronic giving is the preferred, easy, safe and secure way to give to our parish. To schedule a recurring electronic gift directly from your bank account or credit card, please contact Carol at carol@csufnewman.com.

Please remember to make your payments accordingly. Thank you again for your generous support of St. Paul Catholic Newman Center!

Weekly Justice Challenge

Justice Challenge: Sometimes we think about making big plans for Lenten sacrificing, only to fall behind with work, family, and other responsibilities. We find ourselves in the second week of Lent with no commitment to better prayer lives, doing good deeds, or practicing acts of self denial. But it is never too late. Catholic Relief Services offers a great resource to parishes and families for praying, fasting, and charitable giving—all in one simple project. What is so great about this project, known as Operation Rice Bowl (ORB), is that it makes all the right connections. When you put the money you would have spent on a new app or that mocha latte you crave into your Rice Bowl box, you participate in a small yet significant way in Jesus' sacrifice. CRS provides prayers to accompany your giving, and it uses the money you would have spent on yourself to help people in need. Participating in ORB is an act of solidarity—standing with your brothers and sisters as one human family. Your challenge this week is to adopt Operation Rice Bowl (or your own version of it if your parish doesn't do it). Give up the extra energy drink, candy bar, movie, or trip to the mall. Put the money in your Rice Bowl, knowing it will be sent to CRS. You will be walking with Jesus while making a difference in the lives of others.

Lenten Children's Reconciliation Service

Our Lenten Children's Mass and Reconciliation Service will take place this Tuesday, March 2 at 6:00pm.

During Mass, children and families will be consecrated to Saint Joseph in anticipation of his Feast and to celebrate the Church's Saint Joseph worldwide. Please make your reservation on our website.

Please contact the Joy of Moms Group at joyoflovmoms@gmail.com or Fr. Byron at frbyron@csufnewman.com for more information.

Donations

You can make your donations to our parish through several portals. Sign up to make your donation to the Newman Center via electronic funds transfer (ACH), credit card, PayPal, or your banks online banking system. You can designate your donation to Sunday Contributions and / or special gifts automatically made weekly or monthly. One can also schedule reoccurring online donations. For more information send an email to Carol at carol@csufnewman.com. We appreciate your support!

RCIA

Interested in becoming Catholic?

If you have never been baptized or if you are baptized in another denomination but would like to become Catholic, please contact ncoffice@csufnewman.com.

The RCIA process at the Newman Center is designed to be a safe and welcoming place to personally experience Christ and develop your personal relationship with Jesus in a supportive community. We don't throw a bunch of doctrines and rules at you. Instead we provide a place for you to explore and develop your faith journey with Jesus as a Catholic Christian.

If you are a baptized Catholic, spread the word and consider becoming a sponsor of those seeking Christ.

Amazon Smile

Do you shop on Amazon.com? Amazon will give .5% of your purchase to the Newman Center through Amazon Smile. Just add "St Paul Newman Center" (no period after St) as your charitable organization on your new or existing account and shop! When you shop be sure to be on smile.amazon.com so that part of your eligible purchase will go to the church. We earned $288.36 this last quarter. Thank you to everyone who has already signed up. Who Exactly Is He?

This Week's Readings at Mass

- ▶ Genesis 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18 - The testing of Abraham
- ▶ Romans 8:31b-34 - God's love for humanity
- ▶ Mark 9:2-10 - Jesus transfigured

It's difficult to imagine this gospel scene when Jesus took Peter, James, and John up a mountain and was transfigured in front of them. There's nothing in our experience of seeing someone glow in dazzling white clothes brighter than any white we can imagine. Nor have we had visions of two people who lived long ago appearing in front of us like Moses and Elijah did with Jesus. Probably we would be terrified as the three apostles were—and maybe even wonder if we were losing our minds.

It gets even stranger when the three apostles hear a voice from a cloud telling them to listen to “my beloved Son.” At that point, they find themselves left alone with the same Jesus they have always known.

© Jean Denton flock.pastoralcenter.com

“This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.”

Sheepish Question:
What are my blind spots when it comes to making sacrifices for God?

Obviously, the experience is something the apostles couldn't have understood with their minds, at least not before his resurrection from the dead. Before this scene, the apostles—as well as pretty much everyone else Jesus was meeting—were trying to figure out just who he was. He appeared human to them in every other way except for the incredible miracles he was performing. How could a human do those things? The Transfiguration probably left the impression that although Jesus was more than just an incredible human being, the apostles still didn't fully understand who he was.

Questions of the Week

- 1 When you think of Jesus, do you think of him more as a human or as divine? How so?
- 2 If you were one of the apostles at the Transfiguration, what do you think you would have been thinking or feeling? How would it change how you thought of Jesus?
