Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B

January 24, 2021

Readings: JON 3: 1-5, 10; 1 COR 7: 29-31; MK 1: 14-20

The Deacon's Speakin'

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

As we approach the Lenten season I'd like to continue exploring ways that the liturgy plays an important part in welcoming and teaching. This weekend's first reading is about Jonah's testimony in Nineveh. You remember Jonah don't you? In the reading we hear about his successful preaching, but he wasn't always so keen on answering "Yes" to God's call. Remember, he tried to run away from God at first, only to be thrown into the sea, swallowed by a whale, vomited up onto dry land, and then called again.

My point is – even if our evangelization and welcome have been effective, those who may be sitting in our midst on Sunday for the first time or for the first time in a long time, could still have serious reservations and doubts about being in church. They might feel unworthy; they might feel like a "fish out of water"; they could be second-guessing why they even got out of bed that morning.

Those of us who prepare, execute, and participate in liturgy should be aware of many things to make sure we're being welcoming to these "first-time" folks. Are we greeting people joyfully and regularly? Those planning the liturgies should be paying attention to making Mass easy to negotiate – music, readings, etc.

We need to remember that many people, both those who are still faithful and those who have left the faith, struggle with many aspects of that faith. Let's be mindful to meet people "where they are" and offer loving invitations to form deeper relationships with God and the faith community. God's love doesn't force anyone to a certain belief or a certain way of life.

*"... Every person is immensely holy and deserves our love."
Pope Francis – "Fratelli Tutti"*

Peace and love,

Deacon John

Faith, Family & Friends

Faith, Family & Friends is our parish religious education and faith formation program for EVERYONE - Single adults, couples, and families!

During this time when we are unable to meet together in large groups, we invite those of you who wish to receive Religious Education & Faith Formation resources for adults and / or children to register.

Adults: Register for our FF&F Adult Religious Education series by emailing John Prandini, Director of Ministries, at prandinij@csufnewman.com with your name, primary email address, and cell phone number. You will then be placed on the list to receive these free resources.

Recommendation: All families with children join the Joy of Love Moms - Family Ministry led by Jakki Pucheu. Joy of Love Moms is sending out weekly emails that provide great ideas and information on fun faith formation activities for children and parenting suggestions to help you reduce stress and improve family communication. You can sign up by sending an email to joyoflovemoms@gmail.com requesting to be put on their email mail list.

For additional information contact

Adults: John Prandini, MA at prandinij@csufnewman.com
Children: Sr. Kathleen Drilling at skd@csufnewman.com

Youth Group

Fr. Byron is looking for a few volunteers to create a youth group core team. If interested, please email Fr. Byron at frbyron@csufnewman.com before January 25th. Youth, Young Adults, Adults are welcome! Also, keep us in prayer as we discern how to serve our youth in a meaningful and spiritual way.

Storytime with Papa Deak

Please join Deacon John for a Zoom story time the 4th Tuesday of each month starting this Tuesday, January 26! This month he will prepare our kids for Lent with books about mercy, forgiveness, and kindness. Please email joyoflovemoms@gmail.com for the Zoom link.

Family Life Ministry

FF&F Adult Religious Education and Faith Formation Ministry will send adult religious education and faith formation videos and resources to adults wishing to receive them. If you wish to be on the list of recipients, register for our FF&F Adult Religious Education Series by emailing John Prandini at prandinij@csufnewman.com with your primary email address and cell phone contact number. You will be placed on the list to receive these free resources. You can also register by texting the message: SPCNC to 84576 and following the prompts you receive.

The Ignatian Spirituality Group has begun a weekly online Ignatian Spirituality Retreat for Everyday Life. Weekly Zoom meetings are held for those wishing to be included. Email John Prandini at prandinij@csufnewman.com for details on how to enroll and participate.

The Joy of Love Moms' Group is a family ministry led by moms. To join Joy of Love Moms email Jakki at joyoflovemoms@gmail.com.

A Promise of Hope and Healing

Although our campaign has ended, thank you to the generosity of our parishioners; we are still receiving new and additional pledges. We have received $209,028 in pledges and have received 94% of that amount.

Electronic giving is the preferred, easy, safe and secure way to give to our parish. To schedule a recurring electronic gift directly from your bank account or credit card, please contact Carol at carol@csufnewman.com.

Please remember to make your payments accordingly. Thank you again for your generous support of St. Paul Catholic Newman Center!

Weekly Justice Challenge

Justice Challenge: Sunday's Gospel has Jesus calling together a motley group of people to be his apostles. They drop whatever they are doing—fishing, mending their nets, whatever—and begin a life of discipleship. What trust they demonstrate in Jesus! Your challenge this week is to drop the “nets” in your life which keep you from contributing to the building of God's Kingdom as Jesus described it—a Kingdom in which everyone gets the chance to live with dignity and hope. Reflect on how willing you are to drop the mundane in order to follow Jesus.

Food Distribution

We have a drive-thru food distribution every Friday from 3:30pm to 5:30pm. Bags are distributed in our east parking lot to each vehicle. The entrance to the parking lot is at the east side gate and vehicles exit through the south gate. Please make sure to wear a mask.

RCIA

Interested in becoming Catholic?

If you have never been baptized or if you are baptized in another denomination but would like to become Catholic, please contact ncoffice@csufnewman.com.

The RCIA process at the Newman Center is designed to be a safe and welcoming place to personally experience Christ and develop your personal relationship with Jesus in a supportive community. We don't throw a bunch of doctrines and rules at you. Instead we provide a place for you to explore and develop your faith journey with Jesus as a Catholic Christian.

If you are a baptized Catholic, spread the word and consider becoming a sponsor of those seeking Christ.

Retrouvaille: A Lifeline for Troubled Marriages

Thinking about separation or divorce? Is your marriage or that of a relative or friend heading for divorce? Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi with a long i) is designed to help troubled marriages regain their health. It helps spouses uncover or re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that originally brought them together. The program is highly successful in saving hurting marriages, even bringing reconciliation to couples who have already separated or divorced. The next English weekend in Fresno will be held March 4-7, 2021. For confidential information about this program or to register to attend, please call us at (559) 862-6765.

Donations

You can make your donations to our parish through several portals. Sign up to make your donation to the Newman Center via electronic funds transfer (ACH), credit card, PayPal, or your banks online banking system. You can designate your donation to Sunday Contributions and / or special gifts automatically made weekly or monthly. One can also schedule reoccurring online donations. For more information send an email to Carol at carol@csufnewman.com. We appreciate your support!

This Week's Readings at Mass

- ▶ Jonah 3:1-5, 10 - Conversion of Ninevah
- ▶ 1 Corinthians 7:29-31 - Encouragement within a hostile world
- ▶ Mark 1:14-20 - Call of the first disciples

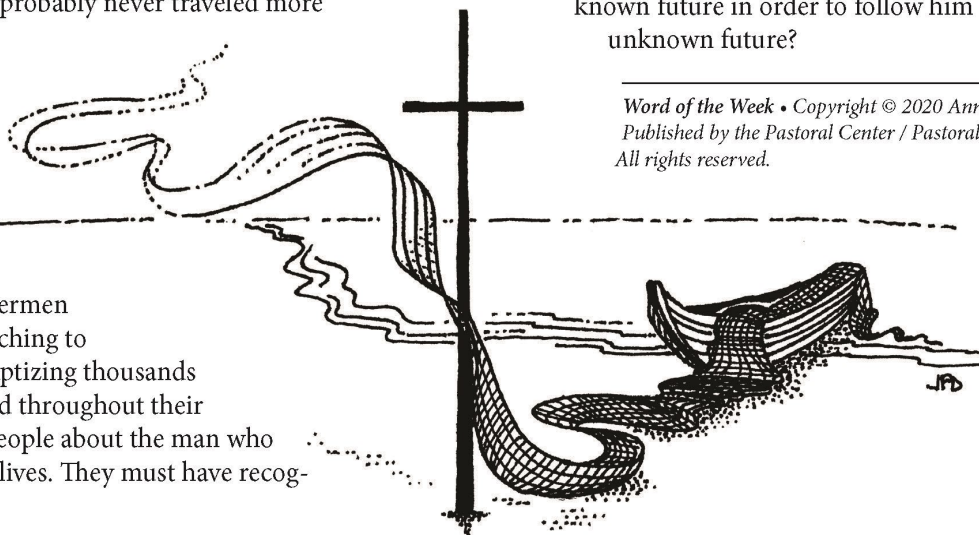

The fishermen who are called by Jesus in this reading knew a life of hardship. They probably could not read or write. They did hard physical labor over long hours to just get by, probably following in the footsteps of their fathers and grandfathers who had always done the same work. When the fishing was good, they could sell the extra fish to provide for their families' needs. When the fish weren't biting, they needed every last one to feed their families. There weren't ways to get ahead in life. They lived under the brutal Roman Empire that occupied their country and ate up extra income with unfair taxes.

Then Jesus came along and invited Simon, Andrew, James, and John to follow him. What is it that made them willing to go without hesitation? They were living a hard life, but at least it was a known life. Joining Jesus to become "fishers of people" would have made no sense at all to most people.

We'll never know the thoughts racing around their minds that day—the day their lives changed in ways they never could have imagined. Up until then they had probably never traveled more than a few their homes.

Yet within a few years
these four fishermen would be preaching to crowds and baptizing thousands as they traveled throughout their world to tell people about the man who changed their lives. They must have recog-

Questions of the Week

- 1 Do you know anyone who made a life-changing decision so radical that no one saw it coming? Why do you think that person had the courage to change?
- 2 What words would you need to hear from Jesus to convince you to give up a known future in order to follow him into an unknown future?
