Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B

July 11, 2021

Readings: Am 7:12-15; Eph 1:3-14 or 1:3-10; Mk 6:7-13

The Deacon's Speakin'

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

There's a destiny for all creation and for every human being. This is exactly what Paul addresses in the reading from Ephesians. "For God has made known to us in all wisdom and insight the mystery of His will, according to His purpose which he set forth in Christ as a plan for the fullness of time." God has a Plan, which is revealed in Jesus and His message. The sooner we become aligned with that Plan, the sooner we will feel "glued" back together again.

No matter how chaotic life seems around us and no matter how much things appear to be falling apart, we can take great comfort and encouragement from knowing there is a Plan. We're not accidents of nature in an impersonal universe rambling on without rhyme or reason, but participants in a grand design of a Creator who knows, cares for, and loves us. Nothing that goes on in our lives happens by pure chance. Everything we do and endure has meaning and purpose. Furthermore, the Plan shows us how to understand and live our lives according to God's will, which is revealed in Jesus. While we're free to reject that will, embracing it assures us of firm leadership, clear goals, and inspiration. Placing our trust in God, and in the purposes revealed in Jesus, gives cohesion to our lives.

We should take comfort in the assurance that God has a Plan for us. We should look consistently to Jesus as our model and teacher for the general plan of our lives. We never have to remain "unglued" for long. We can pull ourselves together by actively Integrating ourselves with God's plan revealed in Jesus.

Peace and love,

Deacon John

Mission Statement

Gifted by God, called by Christ, empowered by the Holy Spirit, St. Paul Catholic Newman Center is a parish committed to serving the academic community and all those who choose to be part of our parish family. We dedicate ourselves to bringing the transformative power of Christ to the world through word and action.

Young Adult Ministries

Young Adult Mass

Are you a young adult Catholic or have a young mindset? We invite you to join us for our Young Adult Mass Sundays at 7:00pm.

What makes this Mass different?

As a Newman Center we want to create opportunities for young people to be leaders in the Church. One way is by participating in Mass as Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers and other roles. Tell a friend, bring them along, and we'll see you soon!

Donations

Many of you have contributed to our food pantry for students -- Thank You! These items are made available to our student community for anyone who can benefit from your generosity. Even though things have slowed down during summer we still have students who can continue to benefit from your kindness. You can bring items to the front desk when you go to Mass or arrange a drop off with Edgar or Fr. Byron.

Campus Ministry

Are you a student at Fresno Pacific University? Do you know someone who is a Catholic student at Fresno Pacific? We have a great opportunity for two students to work for FPU in helping serve the Catholic population. Please reach out to Edgar for more exciting information!

Campus Ministry Contacts

Second Collection Next Weekend

Next week, we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which unites us and Catholics around the world more closely with the Holy Father in two ways: it supports the structures of the Holy See through which the Pope governs the Church as well as his charitable efforts to assist victims of war, oppression, natural disasters, and others most in need. Please be generous. For more information, visit <http://www.peterspence.va/en.html>

Catholic Charities Truck Next Weekend

We will have the Catholic Charities Collection Truck out in the parking lot during all morning Masses the weekend of July 17 and 18 in the East Parking Lot. If you would like to help load the truck contact the office at 436-3434.

Live Streaming Volunteers Needed

As many of you know, the livestream Masses have enabled us to connect with so many people otherwise unable to join us in person. To meet this ministry need, we are still looking for volunteers to serve on our live-streaming team. Experience with smartphones and the Facebook app helps, but is not required. We will train you and you will be a blessing for our online audiences! Email our Liturgy Director Karl Gurney at karl@csufnewman.com to let us know you are interested!

Weekly Justice Challenge

Justice Challenge: Saint Camillus de Lellis, whom we honor on July 18th, is one of the patron saints of those who are sick. He himself was afflicted with illness, yet he reached out to care for those who were suffering—in hospitals, on plague-ridden ships, even on battlefields with injured military troops. He risked his own life to relieve the pain of others. Your challenge this week is to reach out to someone who is suffering—from physical pain, from depression or sadness, from alienation or bullying. Can you be the gentle hands and compassionate heart of Jesus for him or her? Who is it in your family, neighborhood or community who needs a healing touch?

Volunteers Needed

"As I have loved you, so you also should love one another" – John 13:34. At Catholic Charities, we are committed to never sending any person away empty handed, without food to nourish their bodies or a smile to comfort them in their most vulnerable times of need. Last year, we served over 250,000 clients throughout the Dioceses – a 43% increase over the year prior. Of those walking through our doors, 29% had never been to Catholic Charities before to seek out services or ask for help. With the summer months upon us, the Catholic Charities buildings are abuzz with loving moms and restless children, elderly and heat exhausted clients who have walked from several blocks away, and so many more facing their own life circumstances. Our Rural Outreach events are packed with hundreds of farm workers and their families waiting in their cars in line for hours – all in need of someone to trust and a box of food just to get them through the next week. As these needs continue to rise, we are in great need of volunteers willing to help us serve those in need. Students on summer break, retirees who have extra time to spare, service groups, and all who have a heart for serving those less fortunate – we need you. If you'd like to help, please contact us at (559) 237-0851 or email info@ccdof.org. May peace and blessings be with you always.

Health Alert

July 7, 2021

Preventing Heat-Related Illness and Death

As heatwaves take over the Central Valley, the Fresno County Department of Public Health (FCDPH) is asking medical providers to help prevent heat-related illness and death by providing guidance to patients who are at increased risk and their caregivers.

This summer, the risk of COVID-19 transmission must continue to be balanced against the risk of heat-related illness. During hot weather, staying in un-air-conditioned homes can increase risk for heat-related death or illness. Medical providers can help by identifying patients who are at-risk of heat-related illness, reminding them of the health risks of extreme heat (heatwaves), sharing information on how they can access cooling and utility assistance when needed, and encouraging them to plan how to find relief from the heat.

Guidance for people at greatest risk to heat related illness or death

- Remind people that heatwaves can be dangerous.
- Encourage them to monitor weather alerts and make sure they have a plan for cooling relief during extreme heat.
- Encourage people to use their air conditioners. Suggest setting air conditioners to 78 degrees or “low” cool to provide comfort, save on electricity costs, and conserve energy.
- Guide people without air conditioning or with financial concerns about using home air conditioning to consider family, friends or neighbors they can visit even for a couple of hours to stay cool during a heatwave.
  - People who are fully vaccinated can visit fully vaccinated family, friends and neighbors without physical distancing and face coverings. Those who are not fully vaccinated should continue to practice physical distancing and wear face

Categories of Health Alert Messages:

Health Alert: Conveys the highest level of importance; warrants immediate action or attention

Health Advisory: Provides important information for a specific incident or situation; may not require immediate action

Health Update: Provides updated information regarding an incident or situation; unlikely to require immediate action

Health Information: Provides general health information which is not considered to be of emergent nature

- coverings when gathering with others, especially if they are at increased risk of severe COVID-19 or gathering with other unvaccinated individuals.
- The California Department of Public Health and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention no longer recommended that vaccinated individuals wear a mask in indoor public settings. However, masks are required for unvaccinated individuals in indoor public settings and businesses.
  - Let people know that the FCDPH will share a list of alternative cooling spaces during a heatwave. Also, people can also call Valley 211 or go to <http://www.fcdph.org/extremeheat> to find a cooling center in Fresno County.
  - Advise people to increase fluid intake during hot weather.
  - Recommend self-monitoring of hydration, such as body weight measurement, for people who have health conditions sensitive to fluid balance or use medications that can impair thermoregulation or cause dehydration.
  - Engage caregivers and other support networks to frequently call or otherwise remotely check on heat-vulnerable people to help them stay cool and well-hydrated before and during hot weather.
  - Remind them that all hot weather – including but not limited to heatwaves – can be dangerous and help them develop a plan to stay cool.
  - Discuss with people and their caregivers about the signs and symptoms of heat-related illness or risk of exacerbating chronic medical conditions associated with excessive heat and provide guidance about when to call 911 or go to the emergency department.

Leave it All Behind

This Week's Readings at Mass

- ▶ Amos 7:12-15 - Amos called by God to prophecy
- ▶ Ephesians 1:3-14 - Blessing for Jew and Gentile
- ▶ Mark 6:7-13 - The mission of the Twelve

The instructions Jesus gives to the twelve apostles in this Gospel reading are still relevant for us today, even if we don't think we are called to leave our home and families to be traveling missionaries.

First, the note that Jesus sends disciples out two by two echoes throughout the rest of the New Testament. Why did Jesus want his disciples to travel in pairs? As a human himself, he recognized the value of companionship. We are social beings, and even introverts need the support, wisdom, and love of others. Being a disciple is challenging, and we can burn out quickly if we don't have others to help us on our journey. Also, a spouse (and St. Paul makes it clear that some of the pairs that were missionaries together were married couples), friend, or fellow disciple can be a sounding board, consultant, or trusted confidante as we navigate the questions and difficulties of our discipleship work.

Traveling in pairs or larger groups also forces people to confront their selfishness and practice "walking the walk" rather than just "talking the talk." It's easy to preach love and repentance, but harder to model it, especially with the people we are closest to.

The disciples are challenged to take

© Jean Denton flock.pastoralcenter.com

“He instructed them to take nothing for the journey besides a walking stick—no food, no sack, no money.”

Sheepish Question:
What practical matters worry me as I keep my eyes on the Gospel's prize?

nothing for their journey but a walking stick. Talk about an exercise in trust and detachment! Just imagining setting out like that challenges us to evaluate what we are attached to materially.

Finally, Jesus teaches the disciples to appreciate and receive the gifts of those who treat them well and to walk away when they are not accepted. This is yet another invitation to trust: trust others who want to share generously, and trust that there are times and places we are not called to stay.

Questions of the Week

- ① What material comforts might Jesus be inviting you to leave behind to be a freer and more faithful disciple?
- ② When have you felt the call to shake the dust from your feet and leave (a relationship, job, etc.) to go somewhere else where you are welcome?
