Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B

July 18, 2021

Readings: Jer 23:1-6; Eph 2:13-18; Mk 6:30-34

The Deacon's Speakin'

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Achieving a balance between the work of discipleship or any type of work and the need to rest is no easy task. Like Jesus and His apostles, we are called to shepherd - to care, teach, heal, and listen. At the same time, we've got to know when it's time to be on the receiving end, to balance our work, with time to replenish both body and spirit with energy.

As Jesus' disciples, we are both shepherds and sheep: like Jesus we respond to those in need, as well as receive care when we are the ones in need. In this exchange of giving and receiving we are no longer just part of a crowd, but a caring community of God's people. This mutual relationship expands who we are into being the Body of Christ.

All of us sheep have a role to play in the shepherding of the flock. It's never safe to say, "I'm just a plain sheep - whatever happens to all the other sheep isn't my concern." Each of us, by our actions, either helps to scatter or helps to gather the flock. We can help our straggling neighbors catch up, or we can drive them further away by turning our backs on them. We're bound to get lost ourselves if we do nothing but sit around complaining that we don't have enough shepherds, enough priests - or we can do our own part through prayer and encouragement to call forth the shepherds of tomorrow from our own community. So, like it or not, we all play a part in shepherding the flock.

There are no excuses for shepherds who scatter the flock and drive people away. It's not that there is no forgiveness from God for all those who repent, because sin follows all of us. They will be forgiven once they truly repent. Still even with forgiveness, they must never be allowed to guard the sheep any longer. It's for this reason that Pope Francis has established tribunals to deliberate on the negligence among bishops.

All of us stumble, but true shepherds do not repeatedly put the sheep, especially the little ones, in harm's way, time after time year after year, and then claim to be doing the Lord's work. The Good Shepherd gave Himself up for the sheep; woe to those shepherds who give up the sheep to protect themselves.

Peace and love,

Deacon John

Mission Statement

Gifted by God, called by Christ, empowered by the Holy Spirit, St. Paul Catholic Newman Center is a parish committed to serving the academic community and all those who choose to be part of our parish family. We dedicate ourselves to bringing the transformative power of Christ to the world through word and action.

Young Adult Ministries

Young Adult Mass

Are you a young adult Catholic or have a young mindset? We invite you to join us for our Young Adult Mass Sundays at 7:00pm.

What makes this Mass different?

As a Newman Center we want to create opportunities for young people to be leaders in the Church. One way is by participating in Mass as Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers and other roles. Tell a friend, bring them along, and we'll see you soon!

Donations

Many of you have contributed to our food pantry for students -- Thank You! These items are made available to our student community for anyone who can benefit from your generosity. Even though things have slowed down during summer we still have students who can continue to benefit from your kindness. You can bring items to the front desk when you go to Mass or arrange a drop off with Edgar or Fr. Byron.

Campus Ministry

Are you a student at Fresno Pacific University? Do you know someone who is a Catholic student at Fresno Pacific? We have a great opportunity for two students to work for FPU in helping serve the Catholic population. Please reach out to Edgar for more exciting information!

Campus Ministry Contacts

Second Collection This Weekend

Today is the Peter's Pence Collection, a worldwide collection that supports the activities of the Holy See through which Pope Francis governs the Church and exercises his charitable works. When used for charitable outreach, funds from this collection help those most in need. Take this opportunity to join with Pope Francis and be a sign of mercy. Please be generous today. Donations can still be made online or mailed in. For more information, visit <http://www.peterspence.va/en.html>.

High School Confirmation

1ST YEAR:

Students from St. Paul Catholic Newman Center need to contact Cristina Oseguera now. Registration for first year Confirmation will fill up very fast, and we don't want you to miss it! Email: cristina@csufnewman.com

Live Streaming Volunteers Needed

As many of you know, the livestream Masses have enabled us to connect with so many people otherwise unable to join us in person. To meet this ministry need, we are still looking for volunteers to serve on our live-streaming team. Experience with smartphones and the Facebook app helps, but is not required. We will train you and you will be a blessing for our online audiences! Email our Liturgy Director Karl Gurney at karl@csufnewman.com to let us know you are interested!

Weekly Justice Challenge

Justice Challenge: On July 26 we celebrate the feast day of Joachim and Anne, the parents of Mary. Anne is the patron saint of grandmothers, since she herself was Jesus' grandma. While many cultures around the world honor the elderly and give them the highest respect, in our own country we have witnessed the neglect and sometimes even the abuse of our elders. Your challenge this week is to be an advocate for the "wisdom people" in your life. How can you show respect for the older people in your own family, or on your block, or in a nursing home in your community? How can you support the needs of the elderly through legislation? Can you offer a smile, a greeting, and perhaps even a visit with an elder who is lonely and gets few visitors?

CHARITIES

"As I have loved you, so you also should love one another"
– John 13:34. At Catholic

Charities, we are committed to never sending any person away empty handed, without food to nourish their bodies or a smile to comfort them in their most vulnerable times of need. Last year, we served over 250,000 clients throughout the Dioceses – a 43% increase over the year prior. Of those walking through our doors, 29% had never been to Catholic Charities before to seek out services or ask for help. With the summer months upon us, the Catholic Charities buildings are abuzz with loving moms and restless children, elderly and heat exhausted clients who have walked from several blocks away, and so many more facing their own life circumstances. Our Rural Outreach events are packed with hundreds of farm workers and their families waiting in their cars in line for hours – all in need of someone to trust and a box of food just to get them through the next week. As these needs continue to rise, we are in great need of volunteers willing to help us serve those in need. Students on summer break, retirees who have extra time to spare, service groups, and all who have a heart for serving those less fortunate – we need you. If you'd like to help, please contact us at (559) 237-0851 or email info@ccdof.org. May peace and blessings be with you always.

Come and Rest

This Week's Readings at Mass

- ▶ Jeremiah 23:1-6 - Messianic reign
- ▶ Ephesians 2:13-18 - All united in Christ
- ▶ Mark 6:30-34 - Return of the disciples

This Gospel reading is a fantastic antidote to burnout in the life of Christian discipleship. It challenges any of us who have adopted an ethic of busyness, productivity, and efficiency, whether we have meant to or not. It is a reminder that Jesus wants us to remain human beings and not “human doings” when it comes to following him. Yes, we are called to feed the hungry, care for the sick, visit the lonely, etc., but we MUST stop working sometimes and go away “to a deserted place and rest a while.” Dental hygienists are invited to do this. So are third-grade teachers, truck drivers, video game developers, and retired folks. Jesus needed to get away sometimes, and he recognized his apostles did too, so why wouldn't we?

This doesn't mean we have to go off to a retreat center in a desert and remain in silence for a week at a time. Our deserted place may be the corner of our bedroom with a candle where we can sit down once a day for a few minutes before the kids are awake. It might mean a stoop downtown near our office where we rest for five minutes at lunchtime (even though the city is bustling around us). It might be a coffee shop we visit on the weekend where we can read a book, write in a journal, or talk to a trusted friend. Wherever we find a place that feeds our soul, that is a place where we can rest, tell Jesus “all that we have done and taught,” and allow God to refresh and restore us so that we can go out and continue our work.

As fully human himself, Jesus respected the rhythms of the human body. There are times to eat and sleep, and there are times of work and rest. There are times when we are called to feed others (physically or otherwise), and there are times when we need to be fed. Jesus showed us that it is not selfish to take the time for it.

Questions of the Week

- 1 Can you imagine the apostles' reaction to Jesus' invitation to get away and rest awhile while they were in the midst of so much human need? What do you think they thought and felt?
- 2 Do you take regular time to go “away” and rest and talk to Jesus? Where do you go and what do you do? If you don't, what might you like to try to build up this practice?
