Fourth Sunday of Lent, Year B

March 14, 2021

Readings: 2 Chr 36:14-16, 19-23; Eph 2:4-10; Jn 3:14-21

The Deacon's Speakin'

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

In our modern American culture, the Sundays of fall and winter are punctuated with football. We know that Mass attendance can be influenced by the time of a Forty-Niner or Raiders' game. Several years ago, while on vacation we attended a Saturday vigil Mass in New Hampshire and heard the pastor give the halftime score of a Notre Dame game and told the parishioners that they'd be out early to watch the rest of the game. It's become almost a regular occurrence at football games that we see some dedicated believer display a simple message: "John 3:16". That's the verse that appears in today's gospel.

The Fourth Sunday of Lent is traditionally called "Laetare Sunday" from the Latin meaning "to rejoice" or "to be joyful". It might seem odd to rejoice during Lent, but that exhortation is a reminder or maybe a foreshadowing of Easter. It's as though Easter is breaking into the Lenten season.

The Passage that many use to sum up the gospel is simply this – "For God so loved the world that He gave His only son." This profound statement proclaims a God of love, not a God of condemnation. And this love results in God sending His only Son, Jesus. The starting point of our faith is love.

Though many today, and throughout history, seem to prefer a God of judgement – a God of condemnation – today we're reminded that our God is love. And God's love is eternal and is expressed in a never-ending life that He wants for each of us, where the relationship and bonds we create in this life are never broken. May the joy of the Laetare Sunday, where we read John 3:16, remind us of the joy we have at Easter, when the promise of eternal life is fulfilled.

Peace and love,

Deacon John

Weekly Justice Challenge

The Gospel reading teaches us that God loved us so much that he sent his only Son into the world. The Son brought light into the darkness of sin in our lives. Jesus told us that we also are the light of the world. Your challenge this week is to look at where in our world sin has brought darkness—through greed or hate or violence or prejudice. Then reflect on how you can bring light into this ugly situation. How can you be a light in the world for those who live in darkness?

Volunteers Needed

We need volunteers to help us with the following positions for the Saturday 5:00pm Mass and Sunday 7:30am Mass: a bathroom monitor and ushers. We also need ushers at the Sunday 11:30am Mass. If you are able to help, please contact Jenna at jenna@csufnewman.com.

Bring It into the Light

This Week's Readings at Mass

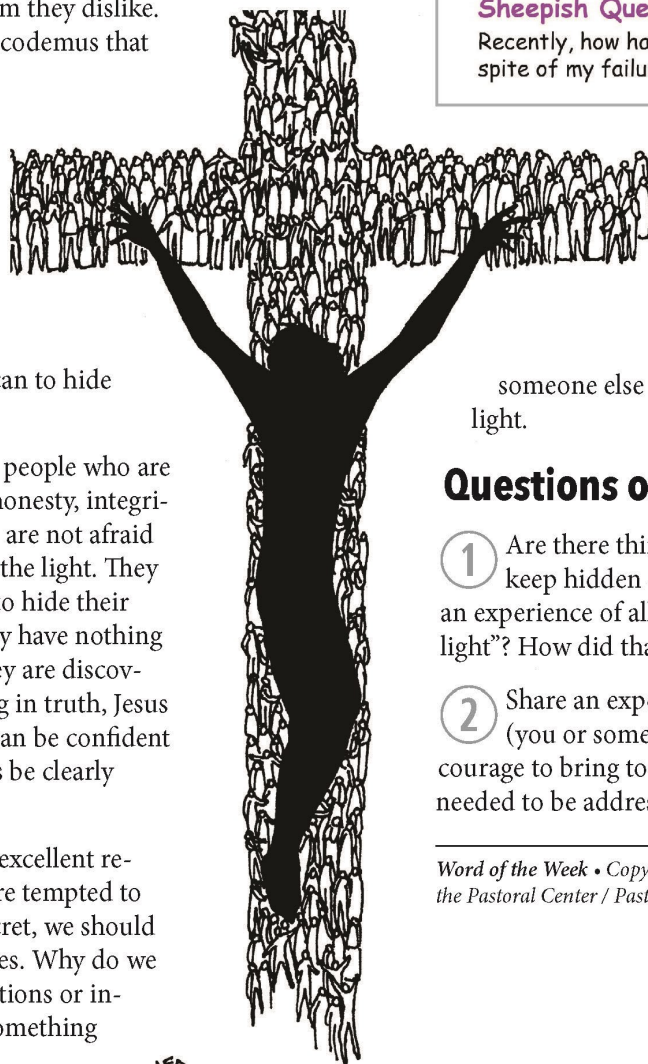

- ▶ 2 Chronicles 36:14-16, 19-23 - Defeat of Judah
- ▶ Ephesians 2:4-10 - Generosity of God's plan
- ▶ John 3:14-21 - Jesus' teaching to Nicodemus

In John's Gospel, Jesus teaches often about light and darkness. It is from here that we get the image of Christ as the light of the world, a light that can never be overcome, no matter how deep the darkness of the world might seem at times.

Nicodemus—a Pharisee—comes to Jesus at night, probably because he doesn't want the other Pharisees to see him meeting with Jesus, whom they dislike. Jesus explains to Nicodemus that people who are evil like to work in the dark where their wickedness can be hidden. They don't want to be exposed so they do what they can to hide their actions.

On the other hand, people who are trying to live with honesty, integrity, and truthfulness are not afraid to do their work in the light. They don't feel the need to hide their actions because they have nothing to be afraid of if they are discovered. If we are living in truth, Jesus assures us that we can be confident in letting our works be clearly seen.

This dialogue is an excellent reminder that if we are tempted to keep something secret, we should question our motives. Why do we need to hide our actions or intentions? Is there something

Sheepish Question:
Recently, how have I experienced God's grace in spite of my failures?

we are trying to cover up, and if so, why? St. Ignatius urged people to pay attention to when they were tempted to keep something secret. In such cases, he suggested they intentionally tell someone else about it so as to bring it into the light.

Questions of the Week

- 1 Are there things you have been tempted to keep hidden or secret? If so, have you also had an experience of allowing something to “come to the light”? How did that bring you freedom or relief?
- 2 Share an experience of a time when someone (you or someone else you know) had the courage to bring to light a troubling situation that needed to be addressed. What happened?
