Sixth Sunday of Easter, Year C

May 22, 2022

Readings: Acts 15:1-2, 22-29; Rev 21:10-14, 22-23; Jn 14:23-29

THE DEACON'S SPEAKIN'

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." There are a few important points to notice in Jesus' statement. First, we really can experience peace, a state of being where our hearts are neither troubled nor afraid. This idea probably surprises a lot of people who are caught up in our modern society's 24/7 stressful rat race. The next important point is that peace only comes from Jesus. He calls it "my peace," and says, "I leave (it) with you." If we don't look to Him for that peace, we're not going to find it! It only stands to reason that the One who came from Heaven is the only One who can give a taste of that peace here on earth.

Finally, we must note that Jesus clearly says that His peace, "is not as the world gives." When speaking of the world or "worldly," Jesus means the secular value system that is focused on short-term physical pleasure, power, and prestige. It's a view that ignores the eternal truth of God and humankind's spiritual dimension – our need for a relationship with our Creator. In short, the values of the "world" are selfish, shallow, and unfulfilling.

The world dangles "carrots" in front of us, all of which promise to provide peace and comfort and happiness. But, it's all a lie!! Just think of some of the worldly things people chase after today:

*We look for comfort in food. Instead we get obesity and poor health.
We look for fulfillment in casual sex. Instead we get disease, shattered emotions, destroyed families, and even death.*

*We look for security in money. Instead we get worry, exhaustion, and the all-too-common paranoia that comes with trying to hold on to the wealth we have.
We look for prestige in being beautiful. Instead we become obsessed with appearances and depressed that the aging process can't be stopped.*

The peace that Jesus gives us can be ours if we realize it is based on His view of reality – not the "worldly" view. And it's not a complicated formula. We simply need to stop focusing on ourselves for a change. If we instead focus and accept the love that Christ offers us, we will have peace.

Peace and love,

Deacon John

Mission Statement

Gifted by God, called by Christ, empowered by the Holy Spirit, St. Paul Catholic Newman Center is a parish committed to serving the academic community and all those who choose to be part of our parish family. We dedicate ourselves to bringing the transformative power of Christ to the world through word and action.

Family Life Ministries

Joy of Love Moms Group invites families to the west playground after 9:30am Mass for an opportunity for children and families to meet, socialize and play together. Please join us!

Men's Scripture Reflection and Discussion Group meets Monday mornings after Mass from 8:30am to 9:15am in the Library to reflect upon and discuss the previous Sunday's scripture readings.

Marriage Ministry

Any person or couples interested in being a part of a planning committee for Marriage Preparation and / or Marriage Enrichment programs for the 2022-23 year are invited to contact John Prandini at 436-3434 Ext. 107 or via email at prandinij@csufnewman.com. This group will meet to discuss ideas and plan classes, activities, events and retreats.

Prayer Ministries

Christian Meditation meets weekly on Tuesdays at noon in the Community Room for 20 minutes of silent meditation followed by a brief lesson about this ancient Christian prayer tradition and discussion. Christian meditation utilizes the mantra, "Maranatha" (a word in Jesus' own Aramaic language meaning, "Come, Lord Jesus") in order to quiet the mind and come to silence, meeting Jesus in the depth of our own being, beyond words or images. The group is a member of the World Community for Christian Meditation. Meetings are facilitated by Benita Lankford. For information email contact John Prandini at prandinij@csufnewman.com.

Bishop's Annual Appeal Second Collection

We will have a second collection for the Bishop's Annual Appeal next weekend. This fund contributes to the following areas at the Diocese: Youth/Young Adult Ministry, Catechetics, Diocesan Retreat Centers, and Vocations. Our parish goal is to raise $15,000. Thank you for your generosity.

Name Tags

Ever see a familiar face at church and just can't remember their name? It happens to all of us! That is why starting this weekend and continuing weekly, we would ask everyone in attendance to wear a name tag. Name tags are available at a table in the hallway. Help us to get to know you!

Pentecost Sunday Lunch by the Knights

The Newman Center's Knights of Columbus Council will be selling hot dogs and hot dog / soda or water / chips combination plates at our upcoming Pentecost Sunday celebration. Feel free to drop by our booth to grab a bite to eat, and say "Hi" to the Knights. Let's thank and encourage them in their continuing efforts to support the many charitable causes they undertake.

From Father Byron

In the Gospel this Sunday Jesus gives us hope:

“I have told you this while I am with you.
The Advocate, the Holy Spirit,
whom the Father will send in my name,
will teach you everything
and remind you of all that I told you.”
(John 14:23-29).

Life is unpredictable, volatile and complicated. Yet, God rises above all that and lifts us up by the hand if we let Him. That is what the disciples did: they gave Jesus a chance; they believed in their promise and they framed their lives around that promise. We too can give Jesus a chance, believe in his promise and frame our lives around it. It certainly does make our lives perfect -there is no such a thing; but the Advocate can always remind us that God will always stand by our side!

World Youth Day - Help!

Five members of our Claretian Youth have signed up to attend World Youth Day next summer. It will take place in Lisbon, Portugal. Since our youth are under age, a parent must travel with them and it costs about $4,000 per person. Please consider supporting our WYD youth through several fundraiser initiatives they will host in the upcoming months.

We will be selling bottled water, boxed juice, and soda for $1 during our Parish Picnic.

I beg you to help us in one (or both) of the following ways:

-You can donate bottled water, (individual boxed juice), or any kind of canned soda and bring it to my office (up to Saturday, June 4)

-You can purchase lots of drinks during the parish picnic!

May God reward you for your generosity!

Prayers Requested

Please keep my mom, Maria, in your prayers as she goes through knee replacement tomorrow (May 23). I will be going to Chicago tonight and help out my mom through the week. Then, on May 30 I will join my brother Claretians for our Annual Assembly; I will return on Friday, June 3. I will miss you and I will be offering up Masses for you in Chicago!

Pilgrimage!

(I don't know why but I accepted it!) I will be leading a 10-day Pilgrimage to the Holy Land in August 20-30. It is in Spanish, and it costs about $3,000 per person. If you would like to attend, please talk to Lourdes at 559-871-0932.

Update on Our Pentecost Celebration!

We are so excited that we are able to provide our parish community with a wonderful opportunity to pray and have food and fellowship as one family in faith! We will be “together in one place!” (Acts 2).

Mass will start at 9:30am.

Picnic will start right after Mass.

Our Knights of Columbus will be selling hot dog plates!

There will also be a Taco Truck selling goodies.

The Claretian Youth will be selling drinks.

Please bring cash!

We will have music, games for children and several booths with information regarding Earth's Day, ministries and other fun things!

You are highly encouraged to bring our own food / picnic baskets, blankets and picnic chairs (and tents) so you can feel comfortable.

Thanks to all people who have signed up to help. I will be emailing you soon. Thanks also to Karl Gurney and Fr. Paul for coordinating the Mass Celebration.

Please wear red if you can, to honor the Holy Spirit! It will be a memorable Pentecost!

Also, invite people over (maybe you can bring a friend who hasn't been to church in a while!)

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to email me: frbyron@csufnewman.com

Take Jesus Literally

This Week's Readings at Mass

- ▶ Acts 15:1-2, 22-29 - Letter of the apostles to the gentiles
- ▶ Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23 - The new Jerusalem
- ▶ John 14:23-29 - Last discourse; faithfulness to God's word

There are two main parts in the Gospel passage today. In the first, Jesus continues emphasizing what we heard last week—that if we love him, we will act like him. It is a challenging reminder that we need to back up our words with our behavior and actions. It is not enough to “talk the talk;” we also need to “walk the walk.”

The second part is meant to be consoling to the apostles who know they are about to lose their leader after the Last Supper. Jesus understands the apostles are afraid and will feel lost once he is gone. Thankfully, the passage offers consolation for us when we feel afraid, lost, or unsure of what to do or say. The promise of the Holy Spirit is followed by “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you” which is then followed by “Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid.”

Jesus isn't promising that everything will be easy and smooth for the apostles after he leaves them. He doesn't promise them that they won't struggle just because they have the presence of the Holy Spirit within them. What he promises is that they can face their struggles with the assurance of God's ongoing presence of peace and love at their core. There is much debate among Christians about which parts of the Bible should be read literally. What if we take these lines literally? What if we trust that Jesus meant what he said here?

“The Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you.”

Sheepish Question:
What reminders am I hearing from the Holy Spirit this day?

Questions of the Week

- 1 What can you do in this upcoming week to demonstrate your love for God by your actions? How can you “walk the walk”?
- 2 Is there a situation in your life now in which you are being invited to trust more fully that Jesus is offering you peace and that he wants to free you from fear?
