Sixth Sunday of Easter, Year B

May 9, 2021

Readings: Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48; 1 Jn 4:7-10; Jn 15:9-17

THE DEACON'S SPEAKIN'

Loving God, we gather in your presence to give you thanks and to celebrate the gift of your love; a love that supports, nurtures, and challenges us in ways that strengthen and transform us. We offer you praise and thanksgiving for your unfailing presence in our lives and all of the blessings that you so generously offer us.

Today, as we celebrate Mother's Day, we give thanks for mothers the world over. We give thanks for all those who have nurtured and care for us, remembering especially birth mothers, adoptive mothers, surrogate mothers, aunts, grandmothers, teachers, neighbors, and all women who have shared their faith with us.

We pray, compassionate God, for those mothers who have been hurt, disillusioned, or disappointed in their role as mother. We pray for those who have been denied a longed-for chance at motherhood, and for those whose years of mothering have been cut short by the loss of a child.

We lift up before you, O God, the members of our human family around the world – for those who are afflicted or suffering at this time – for those who need healing – for those who require bread or shelter – for those who live in violent homes and communities – for those who are grieving – and for those whose needs are known to you alone.

Holy Mother and Father of us all, touch us with your healing peace and gentle embrace that we may walk in your ways bringing dignity, justice, and peace to all corners of your world. All of this we pray in the name of Jesus.

from the World in Prayer website

Peace and love,

Deacon John

Weekly Justice Challenge

Justice Challenge: The Sunday Gospel for this week explores Jesus' powerful message of unconditional love. Jesus teaches us to love one another; he uses words (and later actions) to help us understand that the greatest act of love one can give is to lay down one's life for others (John 15:9-17). When Pope Benedict wrote his social encyclical Caritas in Veritate (Charity in Truth), he noted that the foundation for justice is love. Your challenge this week is to explore where and how love is the foundation for what you do—the decisions you make, the relationships you have, the way you spend money or vote, how you live at work or school. Are all of these facets of your life rooted in love? In 1971, the bishops of the world wrote a document in which they described social justice as the teachings and actions of our Church which apply the Gospel command of love to the structures and institutions in society. Your challenge is to apply the Gospel command of love to how you live in the world. Make this a genuine examination of conscience and see where it leads you.

Love is the Guide

This Week's Readings at Mass

- ▶ Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48 - Peter in Caesarea
- ▶ 1 John 4:7-10 - God's love and ours
- ▶ John 15:9-17 - A disciple's love

This week, we hear a Gospel reading with Jesus' invitation to "remain in my love" and to "love one another as I love you." He doesn't spell out endless rules ("Do this." "Don't do that.") which we need to memorize and follow in order to do what is right. Instead, his invitation is simply to focus on remaining connected to him ("remain in me") and letting all of our actions flow from a commitment to loving others as he loved us.

It is an invitation for a mature follower. Just as we need to spell out many simple rules to help younger children understand right from wrong, with "younger" disciples more rules or "commandments" are helpful. Feed the hungry. Clothe the naked. Pray for your enemies. Forgive those who have hurt you.

There is nothing wrong with following a list of religious commandments as we learn how to be faithful disciples. At a certain point, though, our faith needs to mature to take into account more complex situations—the gray areas between the black-and-white, or simple right and wrong. Jesus is asking us to go beyond what the rules say and commands us to respond in love to everyone, just as he did.

Jesus gives us a lot of respect here, insisting that we are his friends, not his students, his servants, or his slaves, when we love one another as he does. Often

LOVE... IS... PA... PAATI... PAATIEN...T...

LOVE IS PATIENT LOVE IS KIND IT IS NOT JEALOUS IT IS NOT POMPUS IT IS NOT INFLATED

IT IS NOT RUDE IT DOES NOT SEEK ITS OWN INTERESTS IT IS NOT QUICK TEMPERED IT DOES NOT BROOD OVER INJURY IT DOES NOT REJOICE OVER WRONGDOING BUT REJOICES IN THE TRUTH THERE I'M GLAD THAT'S OVER WITH!

IT... BEARS ALL THINGS... BE... LIVES... ALL THINGS... HOPES ALL THINGS... EN... ENDURES ALL THINGS...

LOVE NEVER FAILS.

© Jean Denton flock.pastoralcenter.com

"This I command you: love one another."

Sheepish Question:
When, lately, have I acted on God's love for me?

Christians fall into the habit of relating to God or Jesus as a child to a parent, but Jesus suggests a more equal relationship. God will always be God, and we will always be human, but Jesus still invites us to be in friendship with him.

Questions of the Week

- 1 Think of a situation in which the difference between right and wrong might be blurred but you are asked to respond with love rather than holding strictly to what a law or commandment says. How does it challenge you to be more Christ-like?
- 2 Have you ever thought of yourself as being friends with Jesus? How so? If not, what is your reaction to this invitation?
