Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B

October 10, 2021

Readings: Wis 7:7-11; Heb 4:12-13; Mk 10:17-30 or 10:17-27

THE DEACON'S SPEAKIN'

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

The article below is an excerpt from EarthBeat, subsidiary of The National Catholic Reporter.

Peace and Love,

Deacon John

To heal the Earth, we must begin by sowing seeds of life
by Alex Mikulich

In her book Who Really Feeds the World?: The Failures of Agribusiness and the Promise of Agroecology, Shiva notes that 40% of greenhouse gas emissions causing climate change are from fossil-fuel-based industrial agriculture. She adds that agribusiness is waging war on biodiversity — by eviscerating as much as 90% of agricultural biodiversity — and a war on humanity by creating a food system in which 1 billion people are "permanently hungry" and another billion suffer from "food-related diseases" like obesity.

By contrast, Shiva writes, local farming communities produce 70% of the world's food and "reflect diverse agroclimatic features" that protect biodiversity while developing diverse food cultures at the same time.

The movement Shiva initiated in India, Navdanya, has created more than 150 seed banks and trained more than 1 million farmers in "chemical-free, biodiversity-based organic farming". This kind of local organic farming has "increased nutrition twofold", and organic farmers earn 10 times more than commodity growing farmers because they do not waste money on chemicals and commercial machinery, Shiva says.

Indeed, Shiva's leadership of the Navdanya organization in India since 1987 demonstrates the power of Gandhian nonviolent transformation through cultivation of seed diversity, living soil and food sovereignty.

Rishi Kumar, a farmer who has helped create hundreds of gardens in Los Angeles and serves as executive director of the Sarvodaya Institute, promotes gardening as a way of individual and collective healing, offering tips for starting at home.

Mission Statement

Gifted by God, called by Christ, empowered by the Holy Spirit, St. Paul Catholic Newman Center is a parish committed to serving the academic community and all those who choose to be part of our parish family. We dedicate ourselves to bringing the transformative power of Christ to the world through word and action.

The Sarvodaya Institute also cultivates gardening through its mission to end "colonial aggression against communities of color as the underlying cause of damage and destruction to our body" and commits to the "disassembly and decomposition of colonial power structures through all of our work". Struggles for racial and ecological liberation are one, as I argue in my forthcoming book.

As we take individual initiative to sow living seed and soil, may we recognize Jesus' invitation to understand how the kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which is the smallest of all seeds, but when it grows becomes a large bush where the birds of the sky come and dwell in its branches, as Matthew's Gospel says.

May all birds of the sky, bees, worms and grubs of the soil, and all creatures dwell in our gardens throughout Mother Earth, so all of our human and nonhuman kin may thrive. We are called to sow, share and multiply seeds of hope and healing for ourselves and all life.

Red Mass

Bishop Joseph Brennan will celebrate this year's Red Mass on Friday, October 15 from 12:10pm to 12:45pm at Saint John's Cathedral. "Let Us Rejoice in God's Mercy" is this year's theme for the annual Red Mass. The Red Mass is a special Mass for the Judges, Lawyers, Legislators, other public officials dating back centuries to mark the beginning of court session. All persons are welcome to attend. Complimentary to-go lunches will be given out after Mass. Please mark your calendar and plan to attend. If you would like more information, please contact Frank Nunes at 436-0850 or by email at info@NunesLaw.com.

Weekly Justice Challenge

Justice Challenge: On October 11 we honor Pope Saint John XXIII. This is the pope who shepherded the Second Vatican Council. He also wrote several encyclicals, one in his last year of life in which he focused on war and peace. In Pacem in Terris (or Peace on Earth), Pope John wrote that the root cause of war is people not getting the resources they need to live a life of dignity. We know that there are enough resources in the world to support all of God's people. But some have too much while others don't have the barest necessities of life. Your challenge this week is to ask yourselves (as individuals and households) if you have too much, if you overuse resources while people around the globe are starving or living in despair. If you answer yes to this question, choose one thing you have which you can donate to someone in need. Drop it off at the St. Vincent de Paul Society or a local shelter to take one step toward ensuring lasting peace in our world.

Have a Laugh

Four Catholic priests are sharing a private compartment on a train. They decided to confess their biggest flaw to each other. The first priest confesses that he spends most of his money shopping. The second priest explains that he blows his money at the casino. The third priest confesses that he spends his salary on expensive hobbies. They have opened their souls and revealed their deepest secrets. They look to the last priest and he says, "I am a gossip and I can't wait to get off this train."

Faith, Family & Friends 2021-22

Faith, Family & Friends is the Newman Center's religious education program for EVERYONE of all ages. It offers faith formation for children, individual adults, couples, and families. Members of our parish become better acquainted and become better educated Catholics and lifelong learners of the faith. Because FF&F is family centered, it is mandatory for at least one parent or guardian to attend with their child(ren). Children are never allowed to be dropped off and picked up. Sacramental preparation programs for First Communion and Reconciliation are a part of FF&F. Please join us!

The Adult Religious Education and Faith Formation portion of FF&F will be held in the Chapel and will be facilitated by John Prandini, M.A. The program, Untold Blessings: Three Paths To Holiness, will present Bishop Robert Barron's three intriguing approaches to holiness which are full of untold blessings: 1) Finding The Center; 2) Realizing That You Are A Sinner; and 3) Recognizing That Your Life Is Not About You. Bishop Barron paints a beautiful and mysterious image of what it takes to be a follower of, "the One who is...Jesus Christ". The greatest calling for all of us is to be a saint. Our ultimate path to holiness is full of untold blessings.

The Adult sessions for FF&F will be held on the following dates: October 12, 19, 26; November 9, 16, 30 from 6:00pm to 7:15pm.

To register online, please go to our website by clicking this link: www.csufnewman.com. You will find registration forms for Families (Adults with children) and another for Adults (without children).

Catholic Professional and Business Club

PRAYERS based on the LAUDATO SI' GOALS for Communities Joining the Laudato Si' Action Platform

Sunday - Parishes and Dioceses

Lord of Creation, we pray for our parishes and dioceses, that they may be attentive to the Cry of the Earth and promote clean energy, ensure clean air and water for all, protect your creation, and its biodiversity and climate, in particular. May we re-discover our original vocation as carers of our common home and of one another.

Monday - Families

Lover of the poor, we pray for all families that they may be “the place in which life – the gift of God – can be properly welcomed and protected”. May they be especially attentive to the Cry of the Poor and work toward the fullness of life for all, especially for the most vulnerable and neglected members of our common family.

Tuesday - Economy

Provident God, help us bring “together the different fields of knowledge, including economics,” and promote “new models of integral development”. May we work towards a new economic paradigm at the service of common good, “leaving no one behind”.

Wednesday - Hospitals

Caring God, we pray that our institutions, especially our hospitals and health care centres, may grow in the capacity to care. May we all understand and value how concrete gestures and simple lifestyles make it possible for others to live and flourish.

Thursday - Educational Institutions

God of Knowledge and Virtue, assist us to “grow in solidarity, responsibility and compassionate care.” May our schools and universities, in particular, promote education that can help to restore “harmony within ourselves, with others, with nature and other living creatures, and with God.”

Friday - Groups & Organizations

Triune God, help our movements, NGOs, communication centres, and all groups that work for the common good, to develop a spirituality of global solidarity which flows from the mystery of who you are, an interconnected community of love.

Saturday - Religious Orders

God of communion, enables us to become communities of participatory action and advocacy, for the Earth and the poor. Enable our religious communities, in particular, to be prophetic servant leaders in the care of our common home and of the least among us.

Is Jesus Asking the Same of Us?

This Week's Readings at Mass

- ▶ Wisdom 7:7-11 - Solomon and the riches of wisdom
- ▶ Hebrews 4:12-13 - God's living word
- ▶ Mark 10:17-30 - The danger of riches—Jesus and the rich man

This story of the rich man who goes away sad because “he had many possessions” is one of the most provocative stories in the Gospels. In the last 2,000 years, countless people have given away their riches (if not all of their possessions) to serve Jesus more freely. Famous people like Saint Francis, Saint Mother Teresa, Dorothy Day, and Oscar Romero chose to live with little to follow their callings. So have countless other “unknowns,” such as Jesuit Volunteers, international aid workers, Catholic sisters, missionaries, etc. During that same period, millions of others have heard or read this passage and felt guilty because they haven't sold everything and given to the poor. Many wonder if Jesus is asking the same thing of them that he asked of the rich man. Hopefully, the story prompts some honest soul-searching, whether or not readers sell their cars and clean out their closets.

Before Jesus' statement that the rich man should sell what he owns come a few other points we shouldn't overlook. First, Jesus reminds the man to obey the commandments. Do we follow these ourselves? If not, maybe this is the place for us to start, before we put our house on the market. Second, Jesus looked at the rich man with love even before asking him to give up his possessions. (No one can ever read this passage and say that Jesus disapproves of rich people.) Can we believe Jesus looks upon us like this first, before asking us to give anything up to follow him?

Questions of the Week

- 1 Have you ever given up something that was dear to you (possessions, a chance to make more money, a relationship, social status, etc.) which then enabled you to follow God's call more freely? Please share.
- 2 What in your life now is “holding you hostage” so that you are not free to follow an invitation from God? What might Jesus be inviting you to let go of or say goodbye to so you can move forward with more freedom?
