Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B

September 19, 2021

Readings: Wis 2:12, 17-20; Jas 3:16-4:3; Mk 9:30-37

THE DEACON'S SPEAKIN'

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Soon after the devastation of the Creek Fire, your generosity provided a donation of $7,000 to the mountain community of Shaver Lake. In keeping with our desire to "Care for Creation", we now have the opportunity to volunteer and help clear debris/fuels from properties near Cressman Road where people are trying to rebuild. See below for more information:

WHEN: September 24th – 26th. Work begins at 8:00am each day

WHERE: Cressman Road area (details provided upon RSVP)

RSVP: Allyson Brooks, Sierra Foothill Conservancy
allyson@sierrafoothill.org

Be prepared to work in the heat. Lunch will be provided.

I also want you to be aware of another special presentation.

Late-Night Hosts Join Forces for First Ever "Climate Night"

(CNN) Late night is stepping up for the planet.

Stephen Colbert, Samantha Bee, James Corden, Jimmy Fallon, Jimmy Kimmel, Seth Meyers and Trevor Noah will unite across networks on Wednesday, September 22nd for "Climate Night", focusing their programming on climate change.

Shows that will participate include TBS's "Full Frontal with Samantha Bee", ABC's "Jimmy Kimmel Live!", NBC's "Late Night with Seth Meyers", Comedy Central's "The Daily Show with Trevor Noah", CBS's "The Late Late Show with James Corden", CBS's "The Late Show with Stephen Colbert", and NBC's "The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon".

Climate Night was created by former "Daily Show" and "Patriot Act" showrunner Steve Bodow. "Climate change has gone very fast from 'probably the future', 'actually, right now'--which means we all need to be talking and thinking about it much more," Bodow said.

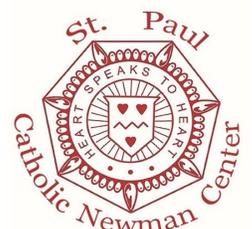

Late-night hosts reflect our national conversation even more than Russian Twitter bots set it -- so this incredible group of shows coming together makes a statement about the scale and urgency of the world's hottest problem.

Peace and love,

Deacon John

Second Collection This Weekend

This weekend we will have a second collection for the Newman Center Stewardship Fund. Your generosity helps aid parishioners and those in our community. Thank you for your generosity.

Second Collection Next Weekend

The USCCB is asking that all dioceses in the USA consider a special collection for the needs of the Church in Haiti. The recent earthquake followed by further devastation by a hurricane has resulted in great hardship and loss of life in Haiti. Our second collection will be held next weekend, September 25-26. We thank you in advance for your generosity in responding to the needs of our brothers and sisters in Haiti.

Covid-19 Memo from the Diocese

Due to the recent spike in COVID-19 and COVID-19 Delta variant cases in the State of California the Department of Public Health, CDC, and with Bishop Brennan's approval, face masks are strongly recommended to be worn at all indoor Masses and/or events, regardless if you have been vaccinated or not.

CAUTION WITH GATHERING OF EVENTS: Encourage all events to take place outdoors and to limit duration to 1 hour. Masks are strongly recommended to be worn by all participants.

No outside organizations are allowed to fundraise on Church property (until further notice).

Only Church or school sponsored events will be allowed under specific conditions at this time. We discourage any large gatherings for fund raising unless approved by the Diocese and encourage all parishioners and participants to always wear masks.

The COVID-19 Delta variant is extremely contagious and large gatherings are discouraged. On-line tapings or on-line meetings should be utilized as much as possible at this time.

Thank you for your co-operation and abundance of caution and care for people within our Diocese of Fresno. We are still navigating our way through this COVID-19 pandemic, and we want to make sure everyone stays safe.

From Fr. Byron

Fr. Paul is back!

After seven weeks, our very own, Father Paul, has returned from Rome! Please say “hi” and “welcome back” when you see him. We are all happy he has returned safe and sound.

Season of Creation

“And it was good” is what God declares about his creation; and it is good, because, as the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches, “The existence of God the Creator can be known with certainty through his works(.)” (CCC #286).

Please pray and put that prayer into action as we honor God’s creation during this month of September. Next week we will be announcing the local initiative we will be taking as a church family and I hope you join us in this missionary endeavor.

Have a Laugh

Why did the priest giggle during his homily?
He had Mass hysteria!

Claretian Youth

There are many things that we are planning for our Claretian Youth ministry. We see local mission, service opportunities, World Youth Day, and more. Yet, because of the pandemic, the question is not if it will happen but when it will happen. Thanks for your patience and understanding. We will keep you posted as soon as we learn any developments.

Finally, this Tuesday will be the Feast of Saint Matthew, Apostle and Evangelist. He is the patron saint of: accountants; Salerno, Italy; bankers; tax collectors; perfumers; and civil servants! May you all be blessed through his intercession and may we all grow to also be apostles through our very daily lives!

Increased Offertory Program

Over the next few weeks, you will be hearing about our upcoming renewal program Heart Speaks to Heart. This effort continues to be very important as we move forward with the mission and vision of St. Paul Catholic Newman Center. We, as a parish family, have changed so many lives in our community! In order to continue our mission and ministries, we encourage all parishioners to spend time in prayer and discussion with your family reflecting on the work we do. Our special Commitment Weekend will be celebrated on October 9 and 10. If you have any questions regarding the Heart Speaks to Heart Program, please feel free to contact the parish office at 436-3434.

Weekly Justice Challenge

Justice Challenge: The Sunday Gospel has the apostles arguing about which one of them was the greatest. In response, Jesus taught them, "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." (Mark 9:30-37) Jesus told his followers to be like little children in order to get to heaven. Your challenge this week is to look at how important being first, being recognized, or being the "greatest" is to you. How competitive are you? Do you win at the expense of others? Do you expect others to serve you? Or are you a missionary disciple, as Pope Francis has challenged all of us to be? Instead of focusing on winning, do you go to the periphery, to the margins, and reach out to those most in need of God's love? Take some time to reflect on which is more important to you—being first or being one who serves others. Do you need to make a change?

Are You First?

This Week's Readings at Mass

- ▶ Wisdom 2:12, 17-20 - The wicked speak
- ▶ James 3:16-4:3 - True wisdom and worldly desires
- ▶ Mark 9:30-37 - Who is the greatest?

At times, the twelve apostles displayed great faith; some left their jobs immediately to follow Jesus, and at other times they healed the sick, cast out demons, and preached with the same power as Jesus. However, in Mark's Gospel today, Jesus catches them arguing about who was the greatest.

We may think we are above that kind of squabbling, but how often do we make comparisons to others in our own lives? It may take the form of thinking to ourselves "I'm a better, faster, and more productive software engineer than him" or "I'm a more patient parent than her," or even "My child is smarter, kinder, or more talented than hers." It is then that we need to remember Jesus' counter-cultural lesson to the disciples.

In our society, children are honored, cherished, and valued for their own sake, but it wasn't the same in Jesus' time. Children were seen as little more than slaves then. They were primarily valued because they were another set of hands to help on the farm but they were also burdensome because they were an extra mouth to feed. So when Jesus tenderly put his arms around a child and instructed the apostles to welcome a child as if it was him, the observers would have been shocked. It would have been unheard of to put children—who were little more than servants—first, even ahead of Jesus' closest companions. No wonder the apostles were silenced.

Questions of the Week

- 1 What form does social comparison take in your personal and professional circles? Are there particular ways

Jesus is inviting you to let go of concerns about your social or professional standing? How so?

- 2 Who in particular is Jesus asking you to receive with more respect and openness in your life now? How might you do that?
